ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to thank all the many Tregenzas and relatives who have responded to my letters and especially to those who have become temporary genealogists to answer my enquiries. Also there are, around the world, several people, who are very active genealogists investigating their ancestry. I thank them for allowing me to include, in this book, their work on their Tregenza ancestors. I hope that I have acknowledged them, on the relevant pages.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE BOOK

In this book are included all those people, who have been discovered, who bear the surname either by birth or marriage. The rarity of the surname makes it very likely that all those persons bearing it have a common ancestor or come from the same farm. This family research is slowly working towards the aim of documenting all such people and linking them onto one family tree. People who have adopted the surname are also included in this book.

There are three main sections. The first gives the general background.

The second section is the family tree with all its branches. As it is so large it has been split into many pages.

Any Tregenza found during the research has been recorded and most of the records have been added to the main tree or made up into small isolated family trees. These are the Unconnected Families that make up the third section. Over the past few years further information as enabled several of these families to be connected to the main tree or to each other.

THE TREGENZA FAMILY

The family name

The Tregenza family is Cornish in origin as the old adage suggests:

Tre, Pol and Pen
True Cornishmen

Not Spanish

Although a Spanish origin has been suggest for the surname (family name) there is no evidence to support this or any good reason to propose it. The "Z" gives a suitable pronunciation as it is the way that a "S" is pronounced in the Cornish language and dialect. The landing of the Spanish at Mousehole in 1595 occurred over two hundred years before Tregenzas were found in that part of Cornwall.

Varied spellings in Cornwall

The spelling has varied but the pronunciation is always similar in the Cornish dialect. The ending has been "S" or "Z" with "OE", "O", "OW" or "A" and more rarely "ER" or "ON". As the emphasis is always on the first two syllables the ending is hardly heard in normal Cornish pronunciation.

Varied spellings out of Cornwall

Outside Cornwall the name is often misspelt, most frequently one or both of the "E"s are replaced by "A". Branches of the family in North America and New Zealand have adopted these spellings TREGANZA and TRAGANZA.

"I will now explain the Treganza part. My grandfather JAMES who was born October 11 1841 in Cornwall came to this country in 1842 and went to Hazel Green, Wisconsin, mostly by covered wagon. It was there that a schoolmistress thought the name Treganza sounded better than Tregenza. As so often happened in the early west days, names were changed. It was on the trip to Cornwall in 1924 that my mother and I decided to go back to the original spelling."

Development of Family Names

Family names developed after the Normans (1066 onwards) began to introduce a regulated society. They had a sophisticated system of family names, hierarchy and heraldry that was unknown in the Celtic world and more complex than anything the Anglo-Saxons had. The use of surnames or family names required for contacts with the royal court, law, civil service and government gradually moved into the provinces and reached the peasants in outlying areas last. Most Cornish got family names in the 15th century.

The creation of family names occurred while the native tongue, Cornish, was spoken. The Celtic language of Cornish gradually faded and died after the invasion of the Anglo-Saxons (in 9th century) but due to the isolation of the county it continued to be spoken in some form until the 19th century, although all people also spoke English from the 18th century onwards. Place names and surnames became fixed while the language was in full popular use. Dolly Pentreath was reputed to be the last person to speak only the Cornish language fluently and she died in 1777. The people who now speak and write in the language have learnt the language that was resurrected and unified from the spoken and written remains of the language (see the dictionary by Morton Nance republished by Dyllansow Truran 1990).

Cornish family names have simple origins such as: 1. place where the owner lived or originated, 2. owner's father's first name, 3. the owner's occupation, 4. a feature of the person (often a nickname). TRE (a farmstead), POL (a pool) and PEN (literally a head but used for a hill or headland) are common in place-names and family names but there are many others such as Andrewartha (an dre wartha = of the upper farmstead). Others are Angove (an gof = the blacksmith), Baragwanath (bara gwaeneth = wheaten bread), Cooch (coch = red for red-headed), Legassick (legas = eyes, legassek = prominent eyes) and Pascoe (pask = Easter for born at Easter). Johnson, Peters, Phillips etc. ("s" or "son" indicating "son of") are less common in Cornwall. As several unrelated people may come from a particular farmstead, have red-hair, have a father called Peter etc. there is no necessity for all holders of a family name to be related though this is more likely with a rare name like Tregenza.

Tregenza family name

Tregenza must therefore be a family name from a place-name as TRE means farmstead. Tref (Tre or Dre in combination) means the group of dwellings and farm buildings typical of the Celtic countryside. These farmsteads consisted of several extended families, that are usually related, and who farmed co-operatively the surrounding area. In modern times these have reduced to one farm run by a small family or even a couple and many have disappeared as farms amalgamated. A few (especially those near the church) have however developed into villages and towns. Treneglos, Tresillian, Treliske and Treloyan are examples in Cornwall and Trefforest in Wales. Villages and towns are the usual settlement in England but they developed centuries later in the Celtic fringe (Cornwall, Wales and Scotland).`

In Celtic languages adjectives nearly always follow the noun and so GENZA is an adjective. A search for the origin of the family name TREGENZA can therefore look for the meaning in Cornish language and also for a place called Tregenza.

The place called Trogenza

No place now exists called Trogenza but there is extensive evidence of such a place. A search of manorial and other records provided the following information. Being official documents of the period they are of course written in the English language.

1327

Lay Subsidies. Tregensith. Original lost and copier's notes state the corner had been torn away in the original.

1337

Tregensyd in Caption of Seisin of the Duchy of Cornwall 1337 republished by DCRS editor P. L. Hull 1971 no. 16 page 149 "Tybesta - free tenant William de Sulgene, 3 acres of land Cornish, rent at Christmas, Easter and Nativity of St John the Baptist, 2s 3d. Michaelmas 2s 9d relief". A variant of this in 1331 reads "David de Sulgene - 3 acres Cornish in socage in Tregensyd and Tregasowan" (in appendix III). Records of Tybesta Manor. (Tregasowan from Tref-a-jowan meaning farmstead of John which still exists near the Trogenza site in Creed parish see below).

1561

Tregensaghe sold for £50 in the 38th year of the reign of Elizabeth.

A later document refers to "Treginsaghe" as "a steading with Tregenjohn"

1593

Treginsage alias Tregenseth

A rate of the poor made by Thomas Hancock and Thomas Seecombe - assessors. Tybesta Court Rolls. £12 13s 4d to Hon the Lord Chiney and the holders Tregenjohn, Trogenza &c.

(This shows the variations of spelling and the move to modern spellings. Reens and Church Town are two farms near Trogenza).

Tibesta Manor in the Domesday Book (11 century)

It is described as follows:

The count has 1 manor which is called Tibesteu which Ralph the master of the horse held T.R.E. and it rendered geld for 1 hide. Nevertheless there are 3 hides. Thirty teams can plough these. There of the count has 1 hide and 3 ploughs in demesne and the villeins have 2 hides and 10 ploughs. There the count has 27 villeins and 20 bordars and 14 serfs and 14 beast and 4 swine and 160 sheep and 40 acres of woodland and of pasture 3 leagues in length and 1 in breadth. This renders £15 and 18 shillings and 4 d and when the count received it it rendered £12.

Translated from the abbreviated Latin.

Tithe Apportionment Survey (= Parochial Survey) 4th June.

Tregonjohn: field 183, Outer Tregenza Meadow, 6 acres and 16 perches; field 184 Inner Tregenza Meadow 6 acres 1 rood 22 perches. Value of the whole farm of Tregonjohn (178 acres 1 rood 21 perches) £32 8s 2d. The tithe map is now held at the Cornish Record of Office Truro and shows these two fields named.

1912

30th September the ownership of Tregonjohn farm changed from Rt Hon Viscount Clifden of Lanhydrock to Mr T H Williams. The present deeds date from this time and at present the farm belongs to the Duchy of Cornwall.

1931

The farm was partitioned into two farms (Upper and Lower Tregonjohn). The farm buildings of Upper Tregonjohn were built in this year.

1974

The tenant farmer of Upper Tregonjohn was unaware of the original names of the fields and called them "Entrance" to the north of the entrance track and "13 acre" to the south.

The new farm must be close to the site of the original Tregenza tenement. Not far from the farm buildings to the south there is a sheltering copse of trees on irregular ground.

Meaning of the family name

T F G Dexter in his book Cornish Names 1926 gives the most likely explanation of the meaning of the name. He suggests that it derives from Tre gensa meaning the first, front, foremost or prime farmstead. The adjective 'kensa' is an irregular form for first (in the same way that in English 'first' is irregular and not derived from 'one'). The change of 'k' (or hard 'c') to 'g' is an example of the typical and common mutation of consonants used in Celtic languages to make speaking smoother.

The farmstead Tregenza was on top of a gentle rise above the parish church; overlooking it, the valley and old Tregonjohn farm-stead. Also the Tregenza farm was listed first on many documents sometimes with Tregonjohn. Both could have given rise to the name meaning first or foremost. After the church and Churchtown farm it is generally listed first in parish records.

Richard Blewett gave meanings for family names in a series of newspaper articles in the West Briton. "I have not found a place name and I have searched in vain for a clue to its meaning in any modern works on the Cornish language. But an 1870 book on Cornish surnames entitled Patronymica Cornu-Britannia was written by R. S. Charnock I am offering his (Charnock's) interpretation of the surname Tregenza with some doubt from TREG-'N-SAIR = the dwelling of the woodman or carpenter." 7 January 1960 Blewett also says that Charnock's book includes names never found in Cornwall and derivations that do not stand up to modern scholarship.

The full Cornish elements could be TREF (dwelling or farmstead), AN (of the), PREN (wood or timber) and SER (pronounced SAIR = artificier). It is not sure that Charnock considered that the word PREN was there or just assumed. If it was there originally it would be expected to follow the noun SER not precede it. AN commonly reduces to 'N and TREF to TRE. However there appears to be no reason for the appearance of the G !

The earliest documented spellings of place-names are usually the best guide to their meaning but in this case the name Tregenza appeared more or less with the same spelling.

The meaning of Tregensith

An investigation of the original name (alias) could be illuminating but unfortunately there are no expert interpretations of this place-name. A search through the Cornish-English dictionary gives only one suitable word, 'whensys' which mutates in combination to 'gensys'. It is the past participle of the verb 'whansa' meaning to covet or desire. Thus the place-name would mean 'desired-farmstead'. It is interesting but probably a coincidence that this guesswork gives a meaning so close to that of Tregenza (first or foremost farmstead).

Creed Parish

The farmstead Tregenza was situated in Creed parish. The parish lies in hilly country dissected by tributaries of the river Fal but away from the coast. It was difficult land to cross until the large bridge was built on the northern edge of the parish to allow the St Austell to Truro turnpike to cross the river Fal. The bridge and area were called Ponsmur (big bridge) in Cornish but the name that was retained derived from Norman French equivalent (Grand pont in modern French). The village that developed near the bridge is now called Grampound (Graundpount in 1375). All modern development has occurred in this village, which became so important that it had its own chapel in the 13th century (charter granted in 1332). The local manor of Tybesta (Tibesta in the Norman Domesday book) in the Hundred of Powder was extremely powerful and caused the rise of Grampound leaving Creed to this day undeveloped and agricultural.

Creed church is attractively situated and old but not remarkable except for the traces of a "lan". This feature is typically Celtic and was a roughly circular area often marked by a low stone wall. It was built to show the extent of the sacred site. Its presence shows that the site is an old Christian site of the Celtic era despite the oldest structures of church being Norman (tower 1447). Nothing is known of the saint attributed to the church but it is presumed that St Crida (that became corrupted to Creed over the years) was a Celtic saint.

The economic activities of Cornwall other than agriculture were either to do with the sea (shipping, smuggling and fishing) and mineral extraction (copper, tin and china clay). Mining developed early in the history of Cornwall and it is probable that Tregenzas from Creed would have moved to the nearest developments in the parishes just to the north (St Stephen, St Ewe and St Mewan).

The earliest Tregenza records

It might be hoped that these would come from Creed or nearby and so confirm the connection of the family and place-name. The records however are not conclusive.

1470 Hilary Term

John Tregellest by his attorney brought an action against John Tregensowe late of St Laurence yeoman on a plea of trespass at Tregellest near Wolverdon. De Banco Rolls of Edward the Fourth. (A few years later this name reappears and may be a variant of Tregenza. St Laurence is near Bodmin and on the other side of Cornwall from Creed. Tregellest however is in the adjacent parish of Probus).

“Prior of Bodmin gave half mark for licence of agreement with Silvester de Tregensan and Meliora his wife of a plea of the advowson of the church of St Madern”. The writing is difficult to read but the name is Tregensan or close to it. The date of this was not recorded but in or between the reigns of Henry III and VI so in the 13th – 15th centuries.

Cornwall Militia Lists

The names of the tynn^rs inhityng w^lyn the seid pysh.

The common family name Tregenna may account for some of these records. However it is interesting to find the alias Tregensyth being used as a surname. The family tree starts in St Stephen in Brannel and there are several early records from there. St Stephen is north of Creed, St Ewe to the east and Probus to the west.

Spread of the family

Records such as the marriages listed in Boyd's Index of Marriages show the spread of the family from the St Stephens area. In the second quarter of the 18th Century marriages appear at the head of the Fal estuary (Mylor, Veryan and Philleigh) and in the third quarter the St Erth area appears. In the fourth quarter Truro (the county capital town) records appear especially military ones. Later records appear in the industrial areas of Penryn/Falmouth, Camborne/Redruth, St Austell and also in Mousehole/Newlyn area.

In the 19th century the spread becomes much wider to England and English speaking parts of the world where there are mines such as USA, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

The distribution of the surname still reflects these migrations around the world and even in Cornwall as is shown by Richard R Blewett in the West Briton newspaper (1958-1960).

West Cornwall (Penwith)	Camborne & Redruth	Lizard & Falmouth	St Austell	others
St Just Madron Penzance St Ives Ludgvan Hayle Gwinear	Camborne Illogan Redruth Crowan	St Keverne Stithians Wendron Falmouth Penryn Mylor	St Austell St Blazey Ty-war- dreadh	St Dennis Saltash

The Tregenzas discovered in telephone directories in 1974 showed this distribution:

Cornwall	50
England	38
Australia	39
Canada	6
New Zealand	3
South Africa	1
USA	27

Wales, Scotland, Eire, Northern Ireland, and Continental Europe 0

In the United Kingdom all telephone directories were searched while elsewhere only those of capitals and major towns were searched.

Coats of Arms

A search through various lists have failed to show any coats of arms. All the heraldic visitations to Cornwall failed to attribute arms to the Tregenza family.

The heraldic tradition is largely Norman and the family is clearly of Celtic origin not Anglo-Saxon or Norman. After the Saxon conquest of the Cornish (Celtic) princes in AD 814 and defeat of the later rebellions, the Saxon feudal hierarchy was imposed on the Cornish peasants who played little part in the upper echelons of this hierarchy and its political structures. A similar situation occurred under the later Norman rule.

Only a couple of landed families of the aristocracy of Cornwall bear Celtic family names (for example Vyvyan).

A Brief History of Cornwall

The early history of Europe is marked by waves of colonising peoples, each able to superimpose their culture on the preceding due to superior technology, agriculture, political organisation or abilities in war.

The peoples invading Britain are in order the Gaelic Celts, the British Celts, Romans, and then the Germanic peoples (Angles, Saxons, Jutes, Danes etc.) and later the Normans (Norse or Norwegians who had settled in France and spoke a French dialect).

The Celts had closely related languages but in the Gaelic language a 'Q' is often used where a 'P' is used in British; this gives rise to the names P and Q Celts. As the Celts swept through Europe they left behind Celtic areas for example: Galicia in Spain, Galata in Turkey (Galatians of the bible) and Gaul (now France where they often show Gallic temperament). Thousands of years before Christ the Celts ended their migration at the Atlantic ocean. The Q Celts settled in Ireland and later a tribe (called the Scotii by the Romans) migrated back to Briton to create the Gaelic area of the highlands of modern Scotland. The P Celts colonised the rest of the British Isles and later migrated to the part of modern France called Brittany.

Six groups of Celts still remain though much influenced by and merged with the peoples of later invasions. The three Q Celtic languages are Gaelic of Eire (the modern state of Ireland), Gaelic of Scotland, and Manx (of the Isle of Mann). The three P Celtic languages are Welsh of Wales, Cornish of Cornwall (extinct but revived as a hobby by several thousand people) and Breton of Brittany.

The Roman invasion of the first century AD had great influence on the lowland of England and there it introduced the idea of towns, roads and 'modern' administration. However they had little influence on the Celtic regions. They fought battles with some Celtic tribes for example those they called the Iceni of modern East Anglia. The Iceni were lead into battle by Boudicca (in British) or Boudicea (in Latin) and were coloured blue by woad. The other well known tribe was called the Pictii (Latin for painted ones) who lived beyond the wall that Hadrian built across northern England to keep the marauding tribes out. The Romans referred to the tribe living in the horn (cornum in Latin) as the Cornovii from which came the 'Corn' part of Cornwall.

The barbarians that caused the contraction and fall of the Roman empire were various Germanic tribes. Some of these tribes (Saxons, Angles etc.) entered Britain and steadily expanded over the first thousand years AD, defeating the Celts in all of lowland England. Arthur (a Celt with a Roman education and background) tried to unite the Celts in the south and prevent the Saxons separating the tribes of Wales from those in what is now the south-west of England. 'King' Arthur (Arddur in welsh and Arturus in Latin) failed but later romanticised stories of him and the other tribal leaders (knights in the stories) have ironically entered into English folklore. From that point there were the north welsh (Wales) and the southern welsh (the south-west peninsula) and quickly the languages began to deviate from each other.

The Saxons established territories in the south (Wessex, Sussex, Middlesex, Essex for western, southern, middle and eastern Saxons) and the angles further north (East Anglia). The far north also had Danish settlers. Eventually a whole nation came into being with its own language Anglo-Saxon (to become English from Anglish) and Kings. These kings Alfred, Aethelstan etc. were crowned on the coronation stone at the King's town (Kingston-on-Thames) but made the roman town Londinium (in Latin) into their capital, London.

The P Celts of the north (Strathclyde Celts) were superseded and little remains of their language except North of England sheep counting (yan, dan, try, pethera etc.) which are the Celtic numbers and of course many place names there are Celtic. Cumberland for example derives from Cymry (the brotherhood in modern welsh and the modern welsh name for Wales).

The welsh remained independent until the middle ages when they were married into the English crown (the welsh family Teudar or Tudor). The Anglo-Saxon for stranger is 'wealas' and gives rise to Wales and the surname Wallis or Wallace and the 'wall' part of Cornwall (strangers from the horn).

In the south-western peninsula, the Anglo-Saxons gradually moved further west and several kings had expeditions to conquer these Celts. Many of the Celts from the modern counties of Devon, Dorset, Somerset and further east migrated to a rocky peninsula now in modern France. Here they set up a new country of course now called Brittany. The name of Britain is Celtic and is in Welsh 'Pryddain' (pronounced Brithin). In the Breton Celtic language 'dd' or 'th' becomes 'zh' and so the Breton name for Brittany is 'Breizh'. The Breton language deviated from that of the 'southern welsh' but it is still possible with great difficulty for speakers of Welsh, Breton and Cornish to understand each other. Breton and Cornish being more similar to each other than either to Welsh.

For sometime the Anglo-Saxons left Cornwall unconquered, due to the long distance from London, the difficulty of the terrain in Devon and the steep sided Tamar estuary and valley which separates off Cornwall. The wetter climate and the less desirable land probably also stopped the progress of colonisation. It can be clearly seen now in the place names where there are few Celtic place-names remaining east of the Tamar (avon is Celtic for river, pen for hill, coombe for valley etc.) but almost 100% west of the Tamar. Also the Anglo-Saxon incursions can be seen around the north of the Tamar valley into north eastern Cornwall.

In the 9th and 10th centuries there were battles, some of which were won by the Cornish (in some cases with the help of the Danes) but eventually the Cornish princes had to sign a treaty after the final battle at Boleigh (near Lands End in Cornwall). The treaty written in Cornish, Anglo-Saxon and Latin was signed at St Buryan which was given privileges as a Royal parish (Royal Peculier).

Over the next 800 years the integration of Cornwall into England took place gradually. There was little economic interest in Cornwall and it remained peripheral to the development of the country of England. After the Battle of Hastings in 1066 the Norman French monarchy ruled England and introduced social and political hierarchies with sophisticated administration, law etc. These were superimposed on a Cornish Celtic peasantry.

The Cornish, Bretons and Irish were Christian before the Anglo-Saxons but they operated a typically Celtic form of religion with hermits living in cells (the Cornish saints, cil or kil is Cornish for cell), sacred wells etc. To this day the distribution of churches is much influenced by this.

Many of the saints were missionaries from Ireland who came to support the church in Cornwall. To this day many places and churches bear the names of these saints such as Ia (St Ives), Winwaloe (Gunwallow), Austol (St Austell). A story says that the patron saint of Cornwall, St. Piran sailed on a millstone from Ireland to land on the north Cornish coast (near modern Perranporth = St Piran's port). On the beach he made a fire and surrounded it by black stones taken from the cliff. In the heat a silvery metal ran out of the rocks. This is supposed to have given rise to the tin-mining industry in Cornwall and the Cornish flag of a white cross on a black background.

Only later after the Norman conquest did the English system of parishes, bishops and monasteries become established in Cornwall. Only in the last hundred years did Truro the capital town of Cornwall have a cathedral built and have a bishop. Previously the Bishop of Exeter ruled over the see of Devon and Cornwall.

The English language became the main language and by 18th century most people were either bilingual or spoke only English. Dolly Pentraeth of Paul near Land's End claimed to speak only Cornish and made a living speaking it to tourists (she died in 1777). However there were still bilingual people in the 19th century and quite a few people knew stories and songs in Cornish. In the 20th century there are many Cornish words and Celtic sentence construction in the dialect of English used in Cornwall but television and travel have reduced the number of people with this dialect though a Cornish accent still exists. As the colonisation confined the Cornish language to a smaller and smaller area of the western tip of Cornwall it became more and more influenced by English loan words and pronunciation and so gradually became more and more debased. As writing was introduced with the church using Latin or by the national administration using Anglo-Saxon and later English, Cornish did not benefit from a standardised spelling and remained a verbal language with oral tradition. The Cornish learnt and spoken today was constructed from all available written and spoken sources and uses a standardised spelling that is phonetic and corresponds most closely to the language of its middle period when it was distinctive and not so much influenced by English.

The industrial revolution hit Cornwall early and hard. It was one of the most heavily populated counties and had an influx of people from the rest of Britain. New villages, towns and roads were set up in association with the mining of tin and copper and the ports used to import coal for smelting and to export the metals. It is in this period that the Cornish language suffered and that the present pattern of habitation evolved. The industrial population were a target of the non-conformist Christian sects and so Methodists and Baptists became very numerous.

However the mining gradually declined and the population with it. In the early 19th century the new mines in Australia and North America attracted skilled and unskilled Cornish workers. In the 20th century the more economic mineral deposits elsewhere in the world have all but killed the Cornish mining industry. The many deep harbours of Cornwall provided both the shipping and fishing industry. The coming of the train service to Cornwall improved the fishing industry by providing a fast route to export fish to the cities of England. It also provided Cornwall with a new industry of early flowers and vegetables. This industry died as European countries with a more favourable climate have taken much of this trade. The fishing industry is generally thriving though technology, quotas and dwindling fish stocks have reduced the employment in the industry. Thus Cornwall is generally an area low in employment opportunities. The seasonal industry of tourism and holiday-making provided another industry but this too has suffered through cheap foreign travel especially in sunnier areas of Europe.

Cornwall is seen by most people to be just a county of England. However there has been a revival of things Cornish including the language, customs and flag. It is now possible to study the language for school examinations. There are some connections between the Celtic nations that try to maintain these 'roots' against the dominating cultures. There are even a few militant people who wish to obtain some autonomy from England and have tried to set up a currency, parliament, a nationalist political party and a resistance 'army'. Only the party has had any success.

THE TREGENZA FAMILY

Format of the pages.

The large family tree is broken up into a series of 'branches' that are each called a 'family'. Most of these link together and so go back to the first Tregenzas in the St Stephen in Brannel area of Cornwall. This is the first 'family' in this book and subsequent families eventually link back to it. At the end of the book are unconnected families that do not yet link up.

For each of all these families the first page is a genealogical tree. Each horizontal line represents the siblings (brothers and sisters). In the case where a father had more than one wife a small number appears in the line to indicate which children were born to which wife where this is known. The forenames of one person are written in upper case and connected by hyphens. In the case of large families where there is not enough space to place all the forenames alongside each other, they are stacked below the first forename. Below this is the date of birth as accurately as known. Below this in lower case for married men is the name of their wife preceded by the letter 'm' for marriage (or wives in order 'm1', 'm2' etc.).

Vertical lines represent connections to other generations (up to parents and grandparents down to children etc.) If a child to an unmarried TREGENZA mother is given the surname TREGENZA or if a child of a non-TREGENZA mother is given the name TREGENZA by official or unofficial adoption then they are represented on the tree in the same way as other children.

Subsequent pages headed 'NOTES ON' have the names of all the TREGENZAs from the tree page in the same order (left to right then down the page). The forenames of all, including wives, are shown in upper case and in order with hyphens. Any nicknames or diminutives are shown in brackets following. To distinguish wives a lower case 'x' is placed in front of their name. The following information is then in date order so birth, christening/baptism, marriage, death and then burial. Information from census records and from birth marriage or death certificates of relatives and other information are shown in date order between the events above. In some cases information after death is shown to confirm death and connections with relatives. Information connected to both a husband and wife (such as about their marriage) is shown against the husband only. Otherwise where there is significant information about two or more people it is usually repeated so that a full record appears against each name. Where possible sources are given in the sequence.

After these pages are pages entitled 'OTHER INFORMATION ON'. These include acknowledgements to others who have supplied information, and details of public sources, certificates obtained, letters received, copies of census entries etc. It also indicates what sources and records were used to construct the family tree. It also indicates where families that were formerly unconnected have been joined in. It also shows records that may be relevant to the family for example by being in the same town or area. Any similarities between the forenames used, maiden names of wives etc. with those of other families will be indicated.

On some pages the genealogical tree shows that the offspring of one person make up another family. Details of this family appear elsewhere (see two pages below for an index to the families). On each of the connected families (except the first) you are referred back up the tree to the previous generation in a family earlier in the book.

SEARCHING THIS TREE FOR AN ANCESTOR.

If you use the word version of this document you can use the 'find' function (usually in the 'edit' folder on the toolbar). It is best to use advanced functions like 'match case', 'wildcards' etc.

Searching by first name

- If you search for 'JAMES' for example it will result in many answers so a more subtle approach is required. If the first name is rare the chances of finding the correct person are much increased. Note that spellings may not be the standard ones used now and may vary in the records associated with one person as many people were illiterate at the time. As a last resort it may be necessary to go through the whole document to find all the people called 'James' and check each against other information known about him !
- If the person has two first names (even if one is an initial) a quick way is to search for 'THOMAS-HENRY' is to enter 'S-HENRY', 'S-H' or even '-H'. However this may not produce the tree as sometimes lack of space requires first names to be stacked one under the other on the tree however it will produce the details of the person in the "notes on the family" following the tree. This is much more likely to reduce the number of possible persons found that have to be checked against other information known about the person.
- Nicknames or diminutives of first names are often not recorded officially and so do not appear in records used to construct the tree but are shown in the notes on a person where known. In this case they can act as confirmation of that the correct person has been found. Searching for 'Tom' will not find all the other persons called 'Thomas' that were probably also called 'Tom'.
- Searching for a wife can be done by entering an 'x' in front of the name e.g.: 'x SUSAN'.

Searching by surname

The surnames of the wife of a male Tregenza (or husband of a female) will reduce the number of potential ancestors found. Rarer surnames may take you directly to the correct person. However surnames rare in the UK may be Cornish surnames that are common in the Tregenza family. Again spellings may vary, particularly, in the presence or absence of the final 's' and if the surname is from the Cornish language (Baragwanath, Baragwaeneth, Baragwaneth etc.). Many surnames repeat in this family tree such as 'Collings' but rarer names do not.

Searching by place

Search for a place may be useful if it is not in Cornwall or is a rare place-name in Cornwall.

Searching by date

This is rarely useful if just using the year of birth, marriage etc. as these may not be recorded accurately and the date will be found many times in the family tree. A full date to the day is very useful (ddMMMyyyy format such as 01APR1777) as it may occur only a few times in the family tree.

Searching by occupation

Rare occupations may be a useful way of finding your ancestor but of course it may not be recorded on the tree. Entering 'boot', 'shoe', 'cobbler' and 'cordwainer' may be necessary to find your ancestor who is a 'boot-maker' or 'boot seller' etc.

CONFIRMATION

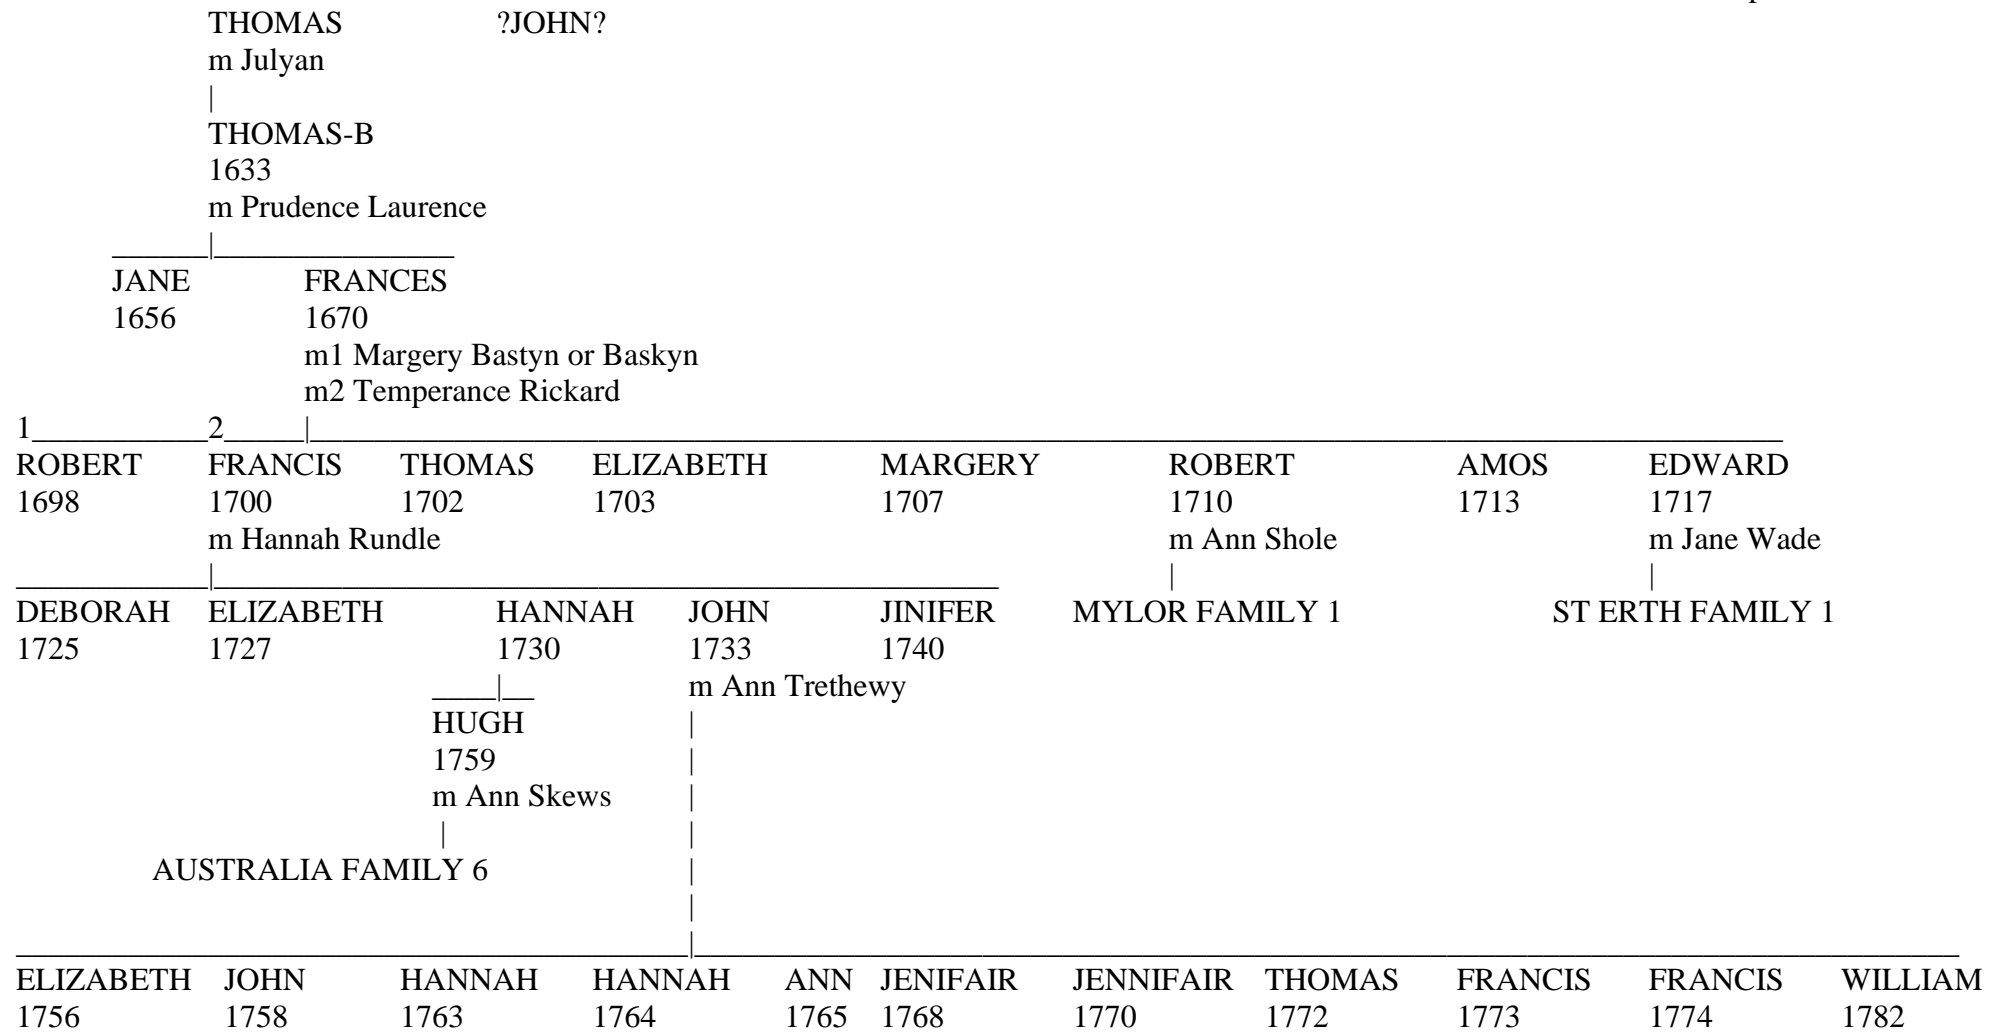

Use several items of information to select the correct person – a good rule is to use at least three elements such as dates, names of close relatives, occupation, location, etc. as well as the name.

Penny Tregoning nurse TREGPESH@aol.com of Benbrook Texas USA gives her tree:

m = married

b = born

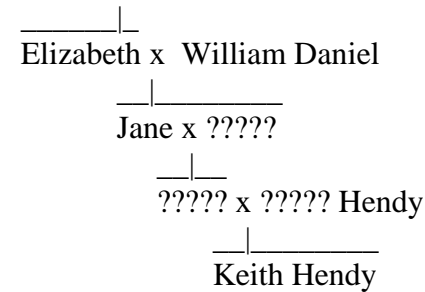

which gives Emily married John Rowe as grand-daughter not daughter of James and Patience.

Extra information supplied by Ryan Dudley ryan_dudley@yahoo.com.au including information that could come from this family:

- a. Overseers of the poor: apprenticeship indentures (these records fit in St Erth family 2 please see)
 - File – John Tregenza, 10, to Henry Rosewarne of Gurling – ref. PCERT/5/347 – date 26MAY1818
 - File – Jane Tregenza, 14, to Rich. Carbines of Pen Pons – ref. PCERT/5/349 – date 26MAY1818
- b. Bodmin Quarter Sessions Order Books 19OCT1824 (ref. QS/1/10/587-608) Elizabeth Treneery of St Erth indicted for taking clothing, property of Ann Tregenza; transported for seven years.

Extra information supplied by Keith Hendy khendy@cogeco.ca (KHendy family Tree on Ancestry.com) on ELIZABETH 1799 (his great-great-great-grandmother) and her sister JENEFER/JANE 1803. His family derives from Elizabeth Sickler (daughter of ELIZABETH 1799) who married William Daniel and had a daughter Jane who went to Ballarat Victoria Australia. ELIZABETH 1799 x Henry Sickler

He indicates that:

- a. ROBERT and ELIZABETH seem only to have had two children baptised and so JENEFER and JANE are in fact the same person – the information previously on this tree about these two persons was repeated and muddled but makes sense if they were merged.
- b. the marriage of JANE to William Townen with his father as Thomas a miner and her father as ROBERT a labourer from Cornwall OPC database shows that the her marriage record is correct and the now removed note to the contrary was a mistake based on the groom's father not the bride's.

OTHER INFORMATION ON ST EARTH FAMILY 1 (continued)

Note:

- There are women called both Martha Cooch and Martha Roach in St Erth parish in 19th century and late 18th century.

AMOS married Sarah Williams and Grace Johns (St Erth Family 1)

Formerly it was thought that AMOS 1800 of this family after a first marriage (of which there is no information or children found) married for a second time to Grace Johns giving rise to all the children CHRISTIAN-JOHN 1832 to EDWIN-JOHN 1847. However subsequently various records about these children and census records gave their father's birth as around 1779 showing they came from AMOS 1779 not his son AMOS 1800. Several correspondents have commented on the confusion between and separation of records associated with these two AMOSs. Redrawing the tree resolves the problems of the missing first wife of AMOS 1800 and makes use of the record showing the death of SARAH Torgenzoe buried 06JAN1829 St Erth age 50 (first wife of AMOS 1779). It also gives logical dates for all the people in these families. Thus AMOS 1779 had children about as frequently as was biologically possible for his wives with the exception of a period from 1802 to 1811. His first child AMOS 1800 was born nine months after his first marriage and his last child EDWIN-JOHN 1847 born only ten months before his death in 1848. The gap in births is neatly filled by Unconnected Family 71 St Hilary as suggested by Lyn Nash lynnash@webaxs.net. Although the wife's name is SALLY, the use of Sally as an alternative to Sarah was frequent and also could be a recording error considering the daughter was called SALLY. St Hilary is close to St Erth and the lease of 1808 (please see above) is in St Hilary. Thus this Unconnected Family is fitted in here. SARAH the first wife of AMOS 1779 may have died in childbirth as CATHERINE was born 1829 approx.).

Note:

1. the use of the first and surname of the first and second mother in the first names of the children.
2. the use of the surname Torgenzoe, Tregenzoe or similar.
3. the absence of further information about AMOS baptised 1800 could be explained by his being the head of Unconnected Family 64 where he married around age 21 in Canada (as suggested by a member of that family)
4. CHRISTIAN-JOHN baptised 1832 and described as female later married a man.

OTHER INFORMATION ON ST ERTH FAMILY 2 (continued)

SARAH 1846 conflicting information received about her surname

1. SARAH BIRCH illegitimate child of JOSEPH RUSSELL of Yorkshire. AMOS (which ?) shot him (source Mrs Isabella Bentley née Tregenza).
2. SARAH BIRCH daughter of JAMES HENRY BIRCH and REBECCA of Sturt St Erth (source Hambley-Rowe via CHARLES-WILFRID Tregenza).
3. SARAH RUSSELL age 30 father PERKS (no first name given) married AMOS TREGENZA age 31, father AMOS TREGENZA (source Penzance record no. 171 page 86 Madron 1876).

Note: a. SARAH née Birch father William St Erth Family 5 wife to ROBERT 1830 first cousin to AMOS 1842 St Erth Family 2 married to this SARAH née Russell ?
b. ELEANOR 1841 St Erth Family 5 married 1879 William-James Russell
(also in Pedigree Resource File <http://familysearch.org/pal:/MM9.2.1/S5MV-W12>)
c. MARY St Erth Family 5 married William Birch

Note:

- Will 49/1/1/77 in Cornwall Record Office, AMOS son of AMOS and SARAH 1808 St Hilary
- Story that AMOS 1842 went to Patoni, New Zealand as a gold miner where he found the Kohinoor diamond (see also Unconnected Family 18). Probably mistaken for a gold nugget as that diamond was Indian ! Frequently Cornish miners in Australia or New Zealand sent home stories of big strikes or nuggets. There were entrepreneurial photographers in ports and mining towns that would take your photograph next to a large nugget (painted rock) to convince those back home of your success.
- Lyn Nash believed that Unconnected Family 71 were also the children of AMOS and SARAH filling the gap between ROBERT 1802 and DANIEL 1811. Finding other records about AMOS his wives and children made this very likely so this change was made - see notes above on AMOS 1800.
- See Lelant family for census record of AMOS married SARAH and St Erth 6 for JAMES married MARY
- SARAH 1846 conflicting information received about her surname (see below)
- Full marriage record of ROBERT 1801 to ELIABETH from Lyn Nash shows some conflicts:

Note:

- In the original St Erth family 4 (now part A) there was GEORGE born 1842 approx. Penzance district (age 9 the 1851 census) who was recorded as dying in Scotland. His father was living in Newlyn at the Fradgan at the 1841 census before GEORGE was born. GEORGE was in Newlyn (age 19 recorded as born in Madron parish) at the 1861 census and living with his parents at 8 Paul Hill. There are no records for him after 1861 ! The GEORGE-HENRY born 1842 approx. of Unconnected Family 102 married in Newlyn in 1862 to Mary-Harvey Downing who lived with her parents in the Fradgan less than a minute's walk from 8 Paul Hill Newlyn and his son WILLIAM-DOWNING was born in less than nine months in 1863 at the Fradgan Newlyn. SARAH-WILLIAMS was his second child born 1867 at the Fradgan Newlyn. There are no records found for GEORGE-HENRY prior to his marriage. It was decided that these were the same people and so Unconnected Family 102 was joined to St Erth Family 4 as part B. Absolute proof would be a birth certificate but none could be found. Use of SARAH-WILLIAMS as first names occurs nowhere else and for SARAH-WILLIAMS born 1867 it would be her great-grandmother's name and that of GEORGE's aunt born 1851 died 1859 about eight years before his first daughter was born. Although the use of first names and the localities link the two families there is contradictory information in the death certificate of GEORGE-HENRY in Scotland which gave his mother's surname as Daaris (not Downing) and his father's occupation as brewer (not labourer) - this is presumably because of lack of information of his offspring. The first names of mother and father of both GEORGES are the same. (The southern part of Newlyn is in Paul parish and the northern in Madron parish with the Coombe (river) as the boundary - much of Newlyn including all the non-conformist chapels, the harbour, Paul Hill, the Fradgan and 'uplong' are in Paul parish but St Peter's, the only Anglican church, is in Madron parish.)

extract from the "Colonist" newspaper volume LX issue 14841, 03AUG1918 page 3 via <http://paperspast.natlib.govt.nz>

A PERILOUS JOURNEY WOMEN BRUTALLY TREATED BY GERMANS

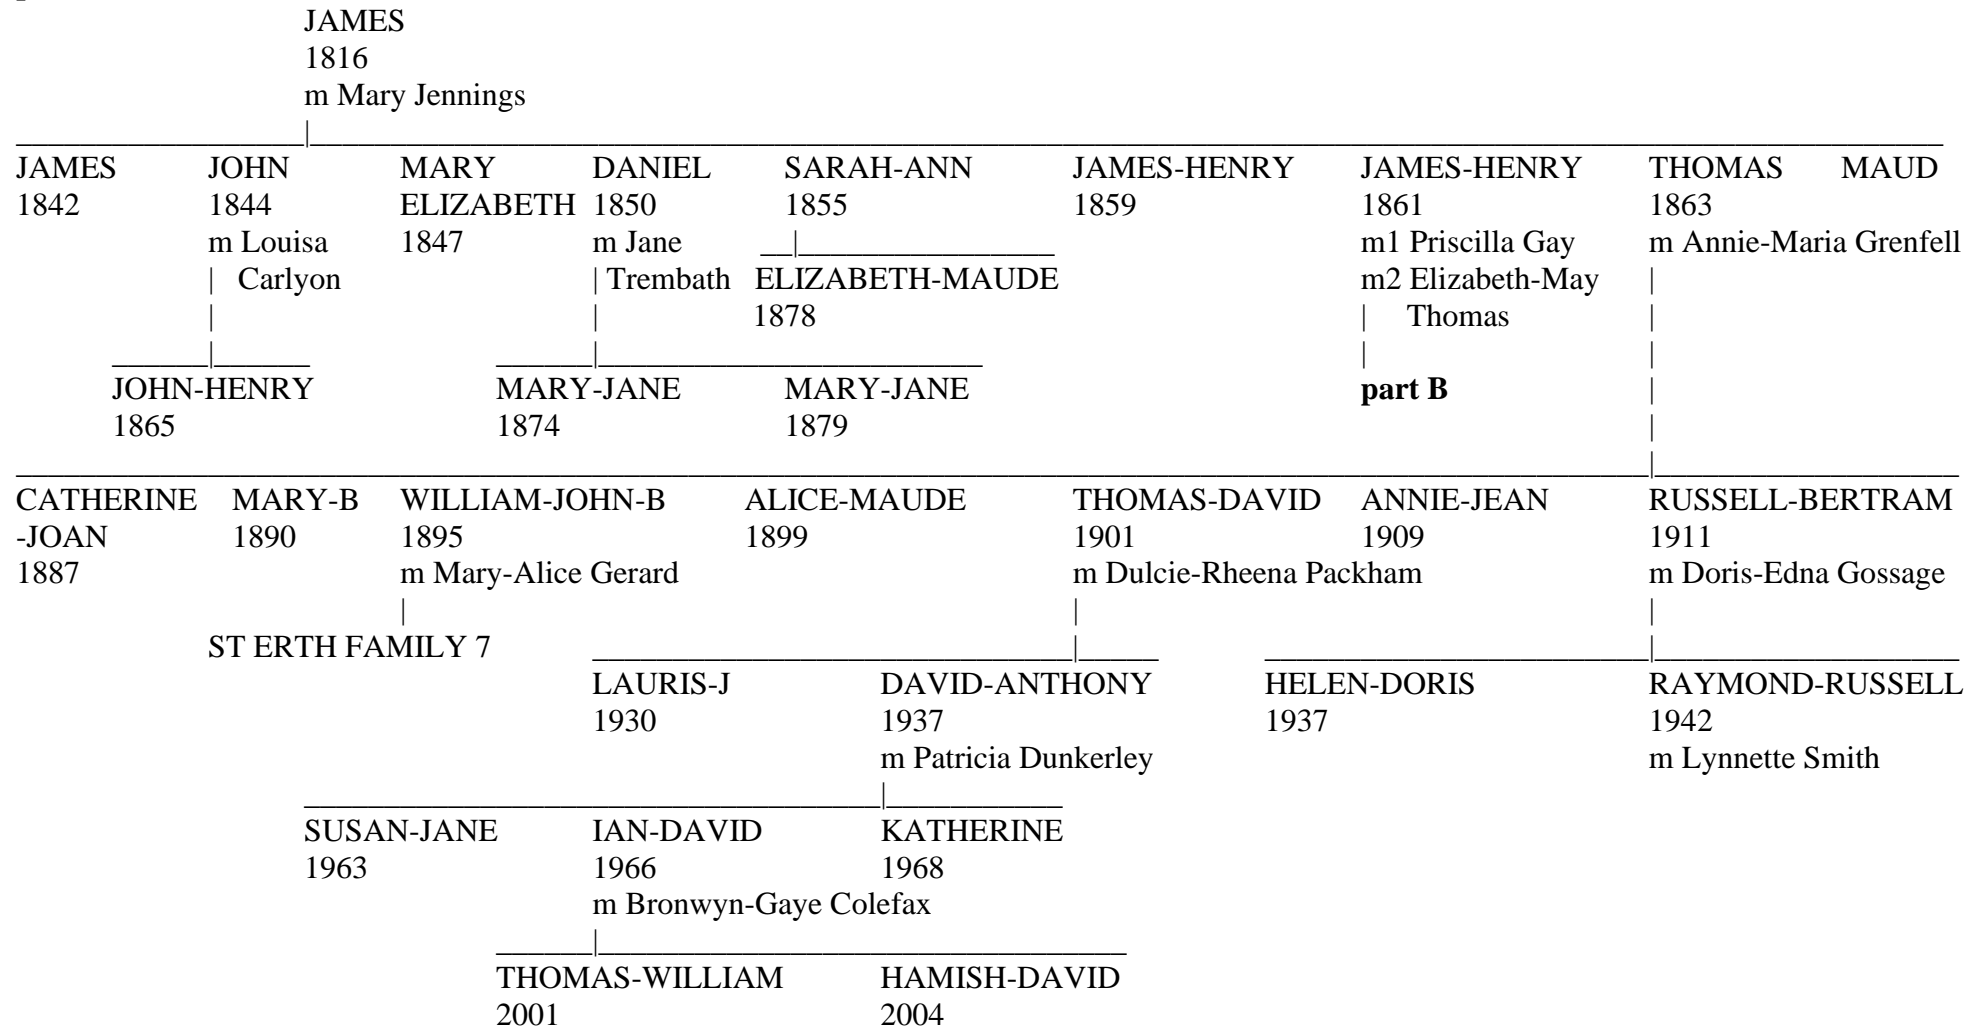

After nearly three months' perilous adventures and great sufferings two Englishwomen - Mrs Butcher and Mrs Taylor - arrived in Rotterdam with the former's two children. They travelled by way of Russia and Germany from Siberia, which they left at the time of the worst Bolshevik chaos. The little party began their hazardous journey in a waggon which had been bought for £30. They persuaded the authorities to mount it on a truck coupled to a train going to Petrograd, it being impossible to obtain accommodation the ordinary way. In this waggon, which was guarded against possible attack, the women and children spent four days never once stepping outside, being supplied with drinking water by a soldier whose services as a guard they obtained.

They arrive at Petrograd at the time when the capital was in the hands of extremists, who took away their passports for Sweden, where they had hoped to get a steamboat going to England. Thus cut off from railway communication they hired a sledge, on which they crossed the Gulf of Finland to the Aaland Islands. The journey across the ice lasted three days, in bitter cold. Their scheme of getting a boat from the Aalands was foiled, for a shock awaited them. they found the island in German occupation. They were immediately arrested by the invaders, who eventually sent them under military guard to Germany, where they were kept in various prison camps.

Their final and worst experience was at Holzminden, a great mixed camp of soldiers and civilian prisoners of a score of different nationalities. Here they were only kept from starvation by some kindly Frenchwoman, who gave them food from parcels, as they found the black bread and bad soup, which was all the Germans provided, uneatable. Mrs butcher and her two children were put in a small room, where there was already a woman whose sufferings had driven her mad. The unfortunate creature's delirium terrified the children, but Mrs Butcher's request on this account for other accommodation was refused, the German official saying, "We have had to put up with this mad woman for a long time so must you." After several weeks at Holzminden the Germans released them and sent them with a number of other women refugees in a train to the Dutch frontier.

23. <http://recordsearch.naa.gov.au> National Archives of Australia especially armed services enlistment records
24. 1851, 1861 and 1881 census from Les Smith, Lyn Nash lynnash@webaxs.net, www.freecen.org.uk www.findmypast.co.uk, and www.familysearch.org plus 1901 and 1911 censuses from www.1901censusonline.com and 1921 census from www.findmypast.co.uk (see below)
25. 1939 Register

Unconnected Family 9 (JAMES his father AMOS and wife MARY and three sons JOHN 1845 and JAMES-HENRY 1859 & 1861) was constructed from:

- a. information from CHARLES-WILFRID Tregenza on JAMES 1824 (should be 1816 as perhaps son's year of birth entered with transposition error 1824 for 1842) married Mary Jennings and had JOHN 1845, JAMES-HENRY 1859 and JAMES-HENRY 1861
- b. correspondence and tree from Alice Greenwood of New South Wales (NSW) Australia née Tregenza daughter of THOMAS links in her family: Part of her family was former Unconnected Family 76 constructed from New South Wales (NSW) microfiche by Sandra Tregenza PO Box 932 Geelong 3220 Victoria Australia who also supplied Alice's tree. Alice Greenwood also reports that a brother who went to New Zealand in 1880's as mining inspector.
- c. the birth certificates of JAMES 1842 and JAMES-HENRY 1859
- d. 1851, 1871 and 1881 censuses (see below)

Unconnected Family 76 was constructed from details supplied by Sandra Tregenza of Geelong Victoria Australia (see notes on Unconnected Family 9).

OTHER INFORMATION ON ST EARTH FAMILY 6 (continued)

part A

Unconnected Family 100 (JAMES 1816 wife MARY and children JAMES 1842 to DANIEL 1851) was constructed from:

- a. information from Arthur Childs via Mrs Alice Morrell
- b. Lyn Nash lynnash@webaxs.net
- c. the 1851 census Killenown St Earth (see below)
- d. This family was entirely derived from the 1851 census record below which gives as head of family THOMAS instead of JAMES 1816. The remaining information i.e.: names and ages of wife and children are correct. This combination of names and dates of wife and children only otherwise occurs in St Earth Family 6 (previously Unconnected Family 9 now added in). At census dates other than 1851 JAMES is given as the head – there are no records of THOMAS with these names and dates of wife and children in census or other records and there is no 1851 census records of JAMES with this wife and children. The birth certificates obtained of some of the children indicate their father as JAMES. Therefore this is confirmed as a census enumerator error and Unconnected Family 100 was removed – the information had already been used in Unconnected Family 9 (now St Earth Family 6) in the assumption that this might be an error as suggested by Lyn Nash.

Unconnected Family 135 (MARY 1823 and grand-daughter MINNIE 1879) was constructed from:

- a. 1901 census from www.1901censusonline.com (see below)
- Despite her name the dates and place of birth of her and grandmother match up MARY-JANE 1879 and MARY 1823

Unconnected Family 137 (SARAH-ANN and daughter ELIZABETH-MAUDE) was constructed from:

- a. 1911 census from www.1901censusonline.com (see below)
- b. birth certificate of ELIZABETH-MAUDE 1878 which joined this family in here

part A

Note: Miss A. Tregenza of St Hilary may be of this family (Cornishman 21FEB1900 www.britishnewspaperarchive.co.uk)

18. 1939 Register
19. Marriage certificate of EVELYN-MARY and Douglas-Ivor Allen connected in Unconnected Family 116

part B

Unconnected Family 22 (most of this family without dates, second forenames and details though with THOMAS-JOHN 1828 of Mylor Family 5 but without LINDSAY-ANNE 1975 and most of the children of THOMAS-HENRY 1896 and ERNEST-B. 1905) was constructed from:

- a. information from GARFIELD 1903
- b. information from JAMES 1901
- c. with some of the family confirmed in letters from Mr & Mrs Jefferree

Unconnected Family 116 (KATY-LOUISE 1982 and RACHEL-CLAIRE 1985)

- a. www.freeBMD supplied name of both daughters (surname Tregenza) and surname of father (Allen)

Unconnected Family 131 (SHIELA (note misspelling) née Thomas and son GERALD-MARK) was constructed from:

- a. memorial inscription St Euny Redruth from <http://ourworld.compuserve.com> giving birth and death dates of SHEILA and death of GERALD-MARK with his age
- b. general registry records.
- c. marriage certificate DOUGLAS-GERALD and Sheila Thomas 1953 (which connected these families)

Note: - SHIELA may be a transcription error of SHEILA

- Cannot obtain certificate of GERALD-MARK as in the last 50 years and need full information

Note:

The 1891 census record with JAMES-H(ENRY) age 27, PRISCILLA wife age 36, MARY mother age 68 and MARY-JANE niece age 11 showed that JAMES-HENRY born 1868 married PRISCILLA of Mylor family 5 does not fit there but in this family. Extensive investigation using www.freeBMD (for births, marriages and deaths) and www.freeCEN (for census records) confirmed this link. Besides the dates and relationships shown in these records incidental information such as places confirmed this link also. These investigations showed that the person in Mylor 5 was HENRY born 1869 and this family JAMES-HENRY born 1861. The results of these investigations were added to the two families as appropriate. Mylor family 7 was the offspring of JAMES-HENRY and his second wife Elizabeth-May Thomas and has been moved to become part B of this family.

OTHER INFORMATION ON ST EARTH FAMILY 8

St Earth Family 8 was formed from Unconnected Family 35. The first two generations of the unconnected family exactly matched EDWARD born 1752 and EDWARD born 1814 of St Earth Family 1 and the information on dates, places, marriages also matched so enabling this connection. The information on these two generations in the unconnected family was more extensive - that of EDWARD 1752 has been merged with that in St Earth Family 1 while EDWARD 1814 was removed from St Earth Family 1 and the information merged with that of the unconnected family here in St Earth Family 8. .

Unconnected Family 35 (EDWARD 1753 married 1 Eleanor Thomas 2 Martha Cooch and his son EDWARD 1814 married Elizabeth Collins and all their offspring) was constructed from:

- a. GEORGE-ERNEST 1912 of part B provided that part and the tree back to the beginning with some of the side branches in part A. He suggested EDWARD 1793 son of JOHN of family MYLOR 1 as the most likely link to the main tree. Copies of extracts from books about the Steadfast which brought CHARLOTTE (née Hall) to New Zealand. Extracts from a book about the Hall family. “In the wake of the Steadfast”

“Anthony Hall (born 1842, died 13th May 1916) married in 1873 Ellen-Martha Harris (born 27th January 1854, died 13th August 1938) and they had ten children. The whole family emigrated by ship to New Zealand. The youngest child was Charlotte who married Ernest-Cecil Tregenza.”

“Charlotte started work age 15 and worked for eight years as a housemaid at Kakanui, then Wellington then Timaru. Ernest (Cecil-Ernest) Tregenza grew vegetables on the section next door to where Charlotte worked in Timaru. They were married at Matheson’s House, Ravensbourne, Dunedin 9th September 1911 and settled in Timaru. At age 19 in 1904 Ernest had one Clydesdale horse and a dray which he used to cart shingle from the sea near Lagoon and Smithfield Freezing Works. When the son, George, took over the business they had a drag-line to take shingle from the sea near the wharf in Caroline Bay. Ernest used to mow hay with a two horse team and a mower. He also mowed the grounds at Waimataitai School. He once kept 31 draught horses but in the early 1950s he gradually mechanised with Bedford trucks. He still had a seven horse dray. He kept the retired horses up until he died. When Charlotte retired she took up bowls and played at Ashley Bowling Club and soon represented Timaru in the New Zealand Championships. At age 70 Charlotte started to play the accordion. Later she went blind and lived in the home for the blind in Christchurch where she died 21st August 1965. She was buried in Timaru.”

Notes on Charlotte Hall and Ernest Tregenza written in 1977 by Graeme Wood (from email 2011)

On 12 May 1888 Ellen Martha gave birth to a daughter, who was named Charlotte Hall. Charlotte was the tenth and youngest child of Ellen Martha and Anthony Hall's total family. Charlotte Hall lived at Longbeach till the age of 15 and then for the next 8 years went to work as a housemaid at Oamaru, Wellington and finally at Timaru. Ernest Cecil Tregenza had a section next door to where Charlotte used to work in Timaru, on which he used to grow vegetables for sale. It was while delivering vegetables to the house next door that Ernest first chanced to meet Charlotte.

Charlotte (age 23) married Ernest (age 25) at the Mathesons House, 43 Woodhore Street, Woodhore, Dunedin and they settled at 18 Hobbs Street Timaru. In 1920 Charlotte and Ernest moved to 22 Hobbs Street, where he moved his business and built stables. The homestead, built of Oamaru stone still stands today.

Ernest had already set up a shingle carting business in 1904 at the age of 19, with one Clydesdale draught horse and a dray. In those days he had to load the dray by hand which was very hard work. The business grew, till in later years when he decided to retire, he sold the business to his oldest son, George Ernest Tregenza. The site where Ernest obtained the shingle from was along the seashore near the lagoon and the Smithfield Freezing Works in Timaru. Later George set up business on the right hand side of the wharf in Caroline Bay, where he used a drag line to obtain the shingle from the sea. Ernest Cecil Tregenza used to mow hay with a two horse team mower. The Waimataitai School grounds in those days were mowed regularly by Ernest. The hay was then tied into stooks and after about a week depending on the weather, the hay was then loaded onto a flat deck truck with a two pronged pitch fork. The hay was then carted to Ernest Tregenza's property at 22 Hobbs Street Timaru, where the hay was man-handled once again and stacked into a hay stack.

Ernest kept 31 Clydesdale draught horses until the early 1950s until he gradually mechanised his business to modern Bedford trucks. It took a team of seven draught horses to pull a dray, one shafter, one horse on either side of the main shafts, 3 pulling horses and one leader. The whole horse team was certainly needed on steep muddy hillside sections where shingle was often delivered. Ernest had a great love of animals and he kept the retired draught horses until the day he died. Ernest had seen the passing of an era when animals were set aside for petrol driven machines.

A house cow was also kept for butter, milk and cream. The cream was separated and put in a small hand driven churn. Over two dozen fowls were also kept. Charlotte had a busy life looking after the six children, milking the house cow twice daily, making the butter and feeding the fowls. As if this was not enough, along with her other domestic chores, she used to bake for the workmen and prepare the morning and afternoon teas which they had in the kitchen sitting around a long wooden table. Clothes hung from the ceiling of the kitchen on a large clothes rack which was pulled up on pulleys. There was a constant heat from the coal range which always had a large black stock pot simmering away on it. Clothes were always boiled in a copper and then rinsed in cold water and blued with the old type of blue bags.

Once the business was sold and the children were well off their hands, Charlotte took up outdoor bowls, which she played at the Ashby Bowling Club. It was not long before she represented Timaru in the New Zealand Championships. At the age of 70 Charlotte started playing an accordion by ear and always had a tune for anyone visiting.

Extracts from ‘Tregenza in Australia 2007’ by John G. Pedler of 4 Monaro Crescent Newton South Australia 5074 show the shift from New Zealand to Australia:

“The three boys JACK (=JOHN), JIM (=JAMES-MONTAGUE) and CHARLES(-HENRY) moved from New Zealand to Western Australia around 1907. Jack and Jim the married twins May and Mary Brown in Albany. May died after her marriage to Jack and also her mother (appendicitis complications).”

“Later the families moved to Beverly area to farm wheat. They also farmed and lived around Albany, Dangin, Corrigin and Quairading. The families of EDWARD and JEAN live in the Mandurah region of Western Australia. The family has been farming in this general area for over 100 years.”

Note: Dangin, Quairading, Corrigin, Caroling, Beverley and Badjaling are close together in a part of the wheat belt due east of Perth Western Australia but Albany is on the south coast of Western Australia and some way from the Beverley area while Mandurah is on the west coast south of Perth and now a dormitory town of it.

Notes:

- Creed parish is an agricultural area with no village. Passing through the parish is the Falmouth to St Austell turnpike which was built with a large bridge (Grampound = Grand pont). Close to the bridge a small village developed (Grampound) that held most of the parish's population, later a chapel was built there and Grampound parish created despite the short distance to Creed parish church. Creed is directly between St Stephens and Mylor parishes.
- "I heard John Tregenza, late parish sexton (father of the present sexton) say that his grandmother was lived in a house on that part of Trefusis called Cragoes and that the minister of the parish lodged with her."

A quote from the Mylor Parish Clerk in October 1873 found in 'The History of the Parish of Milor' 1873 by Olivey page 113 (there were three sextons JOHN 1756, JOHN 1787 and JOHN-BEELS 1819 the grandmother must have been ANN née Shole)

- The vessel Helena Tregenza was built by Massey's of Portreath as a two-mast schooner which it remained. Operated for 45 years of UK coastal trading. There are three original paintings as follows: one by Reuben Chappell held in National Maritime Museum Greenwich (Helena Tregenza photo PX9977(1).JPG), two by Le Clerk the Antwerp 'pier head' paintings held by John C. Seagrove. Schooner lost 17NOV1916 at 50 degrees north 4 degrees west 6 miles off Tintagel Head. Information from John Seagrove (son of LILIAN Tregenza Mylor family 4) who is writing a book on the schooner and so has further information. He is interested in contacting living relatives of JOHN-LEAR and particularly of HELENA Barber née Tregenza her son Cyril Barber (married solicitor of Liverpool) and daughter Ethel (married). The table below gives some activities of the schooner

PORTREATH

Launch of a SCHOONER – About twelve months ago Mr Massey, builder of the much admired schooner ----- laid down another schooner, and in a very short time all the shares were appropriated. The Vessel ----- 705 feet long, 23 feet broad and 11 feet 3 inches deep is calculated to carry 250 tons and is built ----- of £2,300. She is classed A1 at Lloyd's for ----- is strongly built, beautifully modelled and tastefully finished. The sails were supplied by Mr W. ?Hastings? of St Ives and the ropes by the Sparnon Gate Patent Rope Company Redruth. On Wednesday ?night? about four o'clock she went off the blocks in the presence of hundreds of delighted spectators, and will be ready for the sea by the 18th inst. As Miss Tregenza ----- the bottle from her hand, she said "Good ----- the 'Helena Tregenza' in the hope that ----- be a credit to thy builder, a success to thy owner ---- pride of the port." At seven the owners, their friends and the work people, seventy in all, sat down to a substantial supper, in a commodious room, kindly let by Messers Williams and Co. After supper Mr. Tregenza, the chairman, made a few suitable remarks ----- of the sentiments expressed by his daughter at the launch. A number of gentlemen whose names were associated with the toasts replied during the ----- Dr. Bain spoke strongly in favour of the ----- of the new ship and expressed himself ?in accord? with the way in which Mr. Massey ----- the contract. Mr. Richards, touchingly ----- the death of the late Mr Michael Michell his ---- colleague and whom he said all present knew to be ----- of great heart, amiable disposition, and upright ----. Dr Mitchell after thanking the chairman ---- the proceedings so the day which he characterised as pleasant and satisfactory. We hear preparations ----- ready making to lay down a sister ship, Mr. Tregenza having promised to assist Mr Massey in forming a company.

Note:

- John of Tregoweth Farm Mylor queries Edward Ellis married but there is a record.
- Mr Sobey says that a first cousin to Johnnie and Annie Tregenza called Charles ran a private school in Camborne and had a daughter called Lucy. This may be confused with Edward-Ellis, uncle to Johnnie and Annie, who was a school teacher in Camborne and had children called Charles and Lucy (unless Charles took over and was married with daughter Lucy).
- Children of THOMAS and MARY-ANN probably born in Mylor Bridge and probably non-conformist yet baptisms of eight children occurred in 1853 and 1857 in Mylor church.
- Note block baptisms in 27MAR1853 and 01NOV1857 (IGI) presumed all brothers and sisters.
- See AMELIA born 02SEP1821 record in Unconnected Family 77

Note:

- the children of EDWARD 1818 and MARY-ANN and the offspring of the two youngest children (CHARLES-NICHOLAS and EDWARD-HENRY) were moved to Canadian Family 1 which was the offspring of the eldest living son (ALFRED-ERNEST) when research on www.ancestry.ca resulted in the discovery that Unconnected Family 145 was the widow and other children of EDWARD-HENRY
- ELIZA-ANN-BUNNY baptised 22MAR1846 Mylor (IGI) mother ELIZABETH
- See Mousehole Family 4 and Unconnected Family 77 for THOMAS married AMELIA !
- WILLIAM 1823 was sentenced 02JAN1838 for larceny and on the same day ELIZABETH age 23 or 33 was also tried for larceny and sentenced to 6 months imprisonment – if a relative could be ELIZABETH 1819 Mylor family2 (cousin), ELIZABETH 1800 Mylor family 1 (aunt) or ELIZABETH 1826 Mylor Family 3 (sister).
- The Buckingham family is complicated but seems to be explained (see ELIZABETH-ANN 1826) by ELIZABETH-ANN having illegitimate children and then marrying Henry Buckingham (see marriage certificate) by whom she may have had more children. Some of her illegitimate children may have adopted the Buckingham surname. In particular her first born ELIZA-ANN appears in 1851 census as Tregenza in 1861 census as Buckingham but then marries as Tregenza but this may be explained by 1851 her mother is unmarried by 1861 married and then ELIZA-ANN marries a Buckingham as an illegitimate Tregenza (no father on marriage certificate). Going by names she may have married her uncle George at age 19 (see marriage certificate) while her mother falsified her age by six years at her marriage to be closer to her much younger husband. ELIZA-ANN had a son Frederick-Norman-Tregenza Buckingham born 28AUG1884 (see birth certificate) at which point her husband was a chief coast guard officer in Teignmouth Devon (at marriage he was a mariner). Frederick-Norman-Tregenza Buckingham married June quarter 1910 in Birkenhead District volume 8a page 881 and was a lieutenant in the 10th volunteer battalion of the Cheshire Regiment (London Gazette 08DEC1917, 02AUG1918, 05DEC1918 and 28MAY1919)

Note:

- THOMAS-JOHN (head of this family) = BLACK-EYED JACK ran ferry boat from Falmouth to Flushing probably is THOMAS-JOHN died December quarter 1861 Falmouth District (5c127) and probably JOHN born 1828 of Mylor Family 3.
- See Mousehole Family 4, Mylor Families 3 and Unconnected Family 77 for THOMAS married AMELIA !
- WAYNE born December quarter 1976, Truro district mother's maiden name Hooper so might be son of MICHAEL-J born 1953
- LILY born Ashton March quarter 1876 vol. 8d p 524 and probably died Ashton 1876
- The 1891 census Plainangwarry St Hilary (see above) gives JAMES-H. with wife PRISCILLA, mother MARY and niece MARY-JANE. The last two relatives do not fit here but do fit with St Erth 6 so it could be that some of the information about JAMES-H. and PRISCILLA of this family should fit in St Erth 6 instead.
- part A of this family had JAMES-HENRY born 1868 married to Priscilla Gay and later to Elizabeth-May Thomas. He was the younger brother of THOMAS-JOHN 1867 and older brother of WILLIAM 1870. The offspring of his second marriage formed Mylor Family 7. However an 1891 census record showed that JAMES-HENRY and wives fit into St Erth Family 6 and not this family. He is in fact JAMES-HENRY born 1861 of St Erth family 6 part A. Extensive investigation using www.freeBMD (for births, marriages and deaths) and www.freeCEN (for census records) confirmed this link and showed that the person in this family was HENRY born 1869. His birth certificate was obtained and he was found in the 1871 and 1881 censuses but not later. Mylor family 7 became St Erth family 6 part B. See note on PRISCILLA below.
- DAVID 1937 of this family adds JAMES as brother to THOMAS 1867 though supporting evidence could be found.

Note:

- PRISCILLA was recorded as the first wife of JAMES-HENRY 1868 of this family before census information showed that she was wife to JAMES-HENRY 1861 of St Erth Family 6. In this family JAMES-HENRY was in fact found to be HENRY 1869 who lived in the Falmouth area. The possibility that he married another Priscilla Gay was explored. In the 1851 census Priscilla Gay was daughter of John Gay farmer at Swanpool Farm Falmouth Priscilla-R. age 23 in the 1861 census). She was probably the Priscilla Gay who married either Samuel Coombe or Joseph Olver (June quarter 1872 Falmouth district volume 5c page 283) No Priscilla Tregenza (née May) was found except that in St Erth 6.
- extract from email 2016 from Major Paul G. Timmins Royal Marines Officer Commanding 10 Training Squadron, 1 Assault Group Royal Marines, Francis Building, HMNB Devonport, PL2 2BG MoD telephone: 9375 66599 BT telephone: 01752612599 Mobile telephone: 07876 515339 email (military):NAVY 1AGRM-10TRG OC “I believe that my Uncle Roy Timmins and GLENVILLE-DOUGLAS Tregenza (b. 1923) were cousins and whilst serving aboard a Royal Navy ship together during WWII were sunk off Crete and subsequently rescued and became POWs of the Germans. My father Glenroy was subsequently born during their time in captivity in 1944 and was led to believe that this is where his Christian name came from (Glen-Roy).”
- Note on PEARL=FRANCESCA-PERLA-MEDINA-WEBBER: EMMA married John Male is described as aunt but to the mother or the daughter ? Story in the family refers to LILIAN/LILLIAN giving birth to PEARL illegitimate daughter by FRANCIS her lover and running ran away at age 16 when Pearl only three weeks old. Note the use of FRANCESCA a female equivalent of Francis and WEBBER – it is common practice to name illegitimate child using the names of the father although no Francis Webber could be discovered in the locality. PEARL and PERLA are very similar and she may have been called PEARL in the family. However which LILLIAN is it ? Perhaps a LILLIAN may have been born and died early before her sister LILLIAN born 1891 is a possibility but would have to have been born around 1880 to give birth and to match the story. This would make her father THOMAS-JOHN about age 13 and mother age 0 – clearly not possible. The parents were not married until 1890 and no children were recorded at the 1891 census. This early LILLIAN did not exist. LILLIAN born 1891 could not have given birth to FRANCESCA in 1896. The most likely candidate is LILLA born 1872 but would have been 24 at birth of FRANCESCA. No record of a marriage can be found for her. EMMA (LILLA’s older sister) was present at the birth of PEARL and seems to have ‘adopted’ her (as in the 1901 census Pearl Tregenza (not Male) is described as daughter to Minnie Male née Tregenza married to John Male.

ALICE does not appear in the 1881 census but appears in 1891 census (see above) as visitor in the house of Robert Ker Nantrelew Church Mylor Cornwall where her aunt ELLEN was general servant and her mother was a few houses away in Trelew in the house of her blind father - the dates match and the place of birth of ALICE is given as London

Note:

- Census records of THOMAS (RICHARD-THOMAS-BENJAMIN-TREWAVAS) married MARY in Mousehole Family 4
- See Liverpool Family 1 for census record of EDWARD married KEZIAH
- Keziah is the name of the youngest sister of John or Charles Wesley, probably an old biblical name. Presumably EDWARD TREGENZA's wife KEZIAH was from Methodist stock.
- Trewavas name derives from mother of Ann Richards of Mylor Family 1 but see the birth certificate of EDWARD-CHARLES, born 26MAR1856 Mousehole, father JOHN-RICHARDS master mason, mother SARAH nee Trewavas, registered 07MAY1856. Recollections of a scandal seem to indicate that this birth was illegitimate.
- Story of Nannie Tregenza (Newlyn family 2) meeting Ben Trewavas in 1930s on board boat; both returning from visiting relations in South Africa. Ben Trewavas accepted lift in taxi to Mousehole. Taxi taken from Newlyn by Joseph senior with Joseph junior plus Bob (Robert) (see Newlyn family 2) to Southampton returned with Nannie and Ben and luggage ! Nannie visited elderly parents - mother died while she was there. Ben Trewavas presumably a cousin (JOHN-RICHARDS married Mary Cary/Carey Trewavas). See the birth certificate of EDWARD-CHARLES (Newlyn family 1)
- MADELINE reports that daughter to SARAH-TREWAVAS called Elizabeth was living in Barnet age 70 approx. in 1970s or 1980s could also be called Mrs S.W. surname unknown. Also reports William and Ernie McLary of Mousehole are children of SARAH-TREWAVAS and Robert.
- SARAH-TREWAVAS born 1850-1854 probably = SARAH-JANE born 1853
- In connection with the story about her and Robert McLary at 1851 census Elizabeth McLary married head of household with children lived Regent Terrace Mousehole and Robert McLary widower head of household with children lived Chapel Street Mousehole.
- JOHN-RICHARDS born 11FEB1816 (IGI), baptised 03/29MAR1816 Falmouth (parish register) probably not JOHN-RICHARDS of this family - perhaps a member of Mylor 3 where others with RICHARDS as a second given name

Note: Possible relationships between Tregenza, Candy and Roach families could be as in the trees below:

MARY-ANN-RICHARDS Tregenza born 1826 married (1850) 1 Richard Candy born 1828 married (1855) 2 Henry Roach born 1827 had children :

Mary-Ann 1851 Candy	Margery 1853 Candy	Henry 1857 Roach	Robert-Tregenza 1860 Roach	Annie-J. 1865 Roach	Chritiana 1867 Roach	Mary-Ann 1880 Roach
Mary-Ann Roach niece of EDWARD married KEZIA Liverpool Family 1 living with them in 1901 census age 21 but she maybe a great-niece and thus grand-daughter to MARY-ANN-RICHARDS who would have been age 54 in 1880 at birth of Mary-Ann Roach who does not appear in censuses. The two Candy daughters appear in 1861 census and Margery appears as Roach in 1871 census

Murrish Family:

The above 1891 census record of Murrish family gives ELIZABETH Tregenza as mother in law and Margery Candy as boarder (aunt ?). One record gives Jane as Tregenza married Sampson Murrish and had two children but no marriage found for Murrish with Jane above census may be in error as 1871 and 1881 census show Sampson Murrish with wife Eliza plus many children and there is a marriage of Eliza Trembath to Sampson Murrish in 1854 that matches with first born also Sampson age 16 in 1871. Jane may be daughter of Elizabeth Candy and Joseph Weare but not found

‘WOMAN FREED ON MURDER CHARGE’

‘Australia’ newspaper Sydney

At her second trial on a charge of murdering a man in 1958, Hazel Dulcie Bodsworth, 54, formerly of Wilcannia, was yesterday acquitted by direction of Mr Justice R L Taylor. Mrs Bodsworth, mother of 9 children, had pleaded not guilty to the murder of Thomas Tregenza, 70, a retired shearer, in a Wilcannia hotel on 17 January 1958. The Senior Crown Prosecutor, Mr W J Knight, QC alleged that while Tregenza was lying in bed she threw methylated spirits on the bedclothes lit a match and burnt him to death. Mr Knight alleged that Mrs Bodsworth killed Tregenza, who has a very sizeable bank account, because she believed that she would inherit the money. The judge yesterday upheld a submission made in absence of the jury by Mrs Bodsworth’s counsel, Mr M J N Atwill, that a record of interview between Mrs Bodsworth and police at Melbourne CIB in December 1964 was ;legally inadmissible. Mr Atwill said that Mrs Bodsworth’s husband, Henry Bodsworth, at Melbourne CIB in the presence of police officers, had said to her, “Why don’t you tell the truth about everything. You will feel a lot better if you tell truth. If you did anything to Tom tell them about it now because it doesn’t matter how many more you have done.” Mr Justice Taylor said that what Bodsworth said to his wife amounted in law to an inducement to make subsequent confessional statements. There was nothing unfair about the way the statements were obtained but he was not satisfied they were made freely and voluntarily.

See email on next page for further details of Mrs Bodsworth’s activities.

THOMAS 1887

Extract from an email from Chris McClure (born Wilcannia) giving more information on the activities of Hazel Bodsworth:

“I have always wondered what became of this woman. She worked on our family sheep station in the 50s along with Tom Tregenza (who I knew and who, incidentally, was a very nice person) during which time she murdered my uncle, Sam Overton, who was managing the property for my father.

She had previously murdered her first husband; later murdered Tom; and even later was finally brought undone when her oldest children overheard her conspiring, with husband Henry, to do away with their youngest two children. They then took this news to the police.

Bodsworth had murdered her first husband by rolling him - in his wheelchair - into a dam, where he drowned. Henry was said to be an accomplice. She murdered my uncle slowly, using small amounts of arsenic over a period of time. He was thought to have died from sclerosis, a diagnosis 'pushed' onto the local doctor by Bodsworth. Her aim was to take over the management of the property with her husband. This would never have eventuated, as quite apart from their lack of experience, the couple had shown themselves untrustworthy in other ways. My father had noticed that two expensive saddles, some whips, tools and rifles had gone missing, and had done a 'window inspection' of the couples' quarters and had seen the saddles stacked in a corner. When they returned from town he questioned them, whereupon Hazel threatened him with a rifle. He tried to dismiss them, but they complained to the local police, who accused dad of “victimising the honest workers” ! Incidentally, the Bodsworths made a virtue of cultivating the local police force (in this case and on later occasions) by baking cakes and pies and stopping in to the stationhouse to pass the time of day whenever they could. This certainly paid off ! Hazel was also believed to have attempted to murder another property manager in the years following Tom's death.

Unfortunately, all I know is that Hazel was sent to jail for the murder of my uncle (my father gave evidence) and that she would probably have been released while still alive. We joked that being one of her older children was the World's Most Dangerous Job!”

Notes on the Welcome Nugget

Report 1

Red Hill Mining Company made up of 20 or so Cornishmen mined at Creswick and then took over the abandoned claim at Bakery Hill near Black Hill Road and Imperial Hotel Ballarat. William Tregenza, Richard Jeffery and John Gaunter found the nugget at 8.20 pm 09JUN1858 at 180 feet depth. It weighed over 2217 ounces. It was assayed by William Berknyce at over 23 carats (over 99% pure). It was the purest mass of native gold found. It was bought by Julius Isedek and Joseph Wittkowski. Red Hill Mining Company had been working the claim for 7-8 months and had already found nuggets ranging from 12 – 45 ounces. The 45 ounce nugget had been found a few days before the Welcome Nugget.

Report 2

The nugget was found at 7.30 pm. It weighed 180 to 224 pounds. It was valued at £8,700 to £10,000 in 1858. It took half an hour to get it to the surface. It was 20 by 12 by 8 inches (500 x 300 x 200mm). It was taken to the treasury on Thursday morning 10JUN1858. Friday 11JUN1858 it was exhibited for one shilling entrance with the money going to help a local hospital.

A photograph and other reports appear on Ancestry.com

Note:

- ELIZABETH-ANN, JOHN-THOMAS and ANNIE-J fostered as mother died.
- a Tregenza was reported (information from ROBERT of Liverpool family 2) at the Strand Hotel (now demolished) Cairns in 1937 (possibly confusion with AMELIA-GEORGINA)
- there is EDWARD married Ann Allen in Unconnected Family 79 but the details do not match in any way.
- Record in International Genealogical Index – Southwest Pacific ELIZABETH-JANE female marriage 16FEB1850 Paddington New South Wales Australia – seems to have substituted her birth year 1850 for marriage year 1885 – rest of date of marriage correct.

LIST OF UNCONNECTED FAMILIES

Most of these families have not been traced far enough back yet to be linked with the main family tree. Those that have been so linked have been transferred but the numbering of these Unconnected Families (UCFs) has been retained because of the cross-referencing that has been done between the families. They are numbered in the order in which the information was found. The area is the area of the earliest record or the area from which most of the records come. The date is that of the earliest record (x indicates the precise dates are unknown).

IGI is The International Genealogical Index. This was created by the Mormon Church. It consists of pre-registration records (before about 1850) of christenings (baptisms), births and marriages. Only the IGI records for Cornwall have been used.

Note:

- JAMES 1848 in part A of this family and JAMES 1847 of Unconnected Family 58 are probably the same person. Both are born around the same time giving birthplace as the same area (Landrake and Bodmin). JAMES in this family is illegitimate but the father of JAMES UCF58 is JOSEPH ! JAMES in UCF58 also has daughter called LUCY-ANN and grandmother ANN which are respectively the name of the mother and grandmother of the JAMES in this family. Note also that JOSEPH the father of JAMES of Unconnected Family 58 who died between his birth and marriage and the only JOSEPH record in FreeBMD with a death of these dates is JOSEPH-SIBLY of this family
- Pedigree Resource File <http://familysearch.org.plal:/MM9.2.1/SR94-JKZ> contributed 12MAY2011 by MM3N-HX2 gives birth date of JOHN as 1758 and his wife REBEKAH Couch as 1752 (the head of this family) and his parents as JOHN 1733 and ANN Tretheway (sic) both born 1733 - this would like this family into

Constructed from information from:

1. Unconnected Family 36 (Essex)
2. www.nationalarchives.gov.uk medal and service records
3. 1939 Register
4. 1911 census from www.1901censusonline.com (see below)
5. Public member trees from www.ancestry.ca

Unconnected Family 36 (children of CHARLES-LUKE-DOWNING and their offspring) was constructed from:

- a. letter from BARTLETT-MARTYN of Rayleigh Essex
- b. letters from KATHLEEN-MARGARET Lazenby of Hoath Canterbury KENT
- c. information from Sandra Tregenza of Geelong Victoria Australia
- d. the birth certificate of ELLIOT-WILLIAM-PENROSE-TRELAWNEY
- e. marriage certificates of CHARLES-LUKE-DOWNING to Caroline-Clarke Smith and of her second marriage.
- f. 'Tregenza in Australia 2007' by John G. Pedler of 4 Monaro Crescent Newton South Australia 5074

The linking of Unconnected Family 36 with Unconnected Family 4 was made by

- using the certificates above to work back on this family to CHARLES-LUKE-DOWNING and his father JOHN
- from work by members of Unconnected Family 4 received via Tina Elderfield to extend their family down to members of part B
- census information 1861 via Les Smith that linked JOHN 1826 and his wife EMMA to their children CHARLES, LUKE-MARTYN and EDITH (see below)
- census information 1871 via Les Smith that linked CHARLES 1848 and his wife CAROLINE to their children ELLIOTT, MARTYN and ELLA
- the use of Downing and Martyn as first names, the places and dates
- extensive information via Les Smith on records, archives, and census that expand the detail of both parts of the family.

Note:

- St Erth Family 6 has Mary Jennings also
- witness to wedding of KETURAH (KITTY) was her brother (THOMAS) and perhaps it was her brother-in-law (Ed Arthur) who was a witness at her brother's (THOMAS) wedding
- Unconnected Family 79 could fit here if AMOS-JENNINGS of this family is AMOS of UCF79 and then THOMAS-ALLEN of UCF79 could be the THOMAS who is nephew of THOMAS 1795 of this family though it should be great-nephew. However no direct evidence has been found for this link however THOMAS of this family and THOMAS-ALLEN were both born 1847 and members of both families were cordwainers in Pydar Street Truro at about the same time.
- AMOS Trogensoe is recorded as innkeeper of Rose and Crown Truro SEP1755 may be AMOS head of this family (see also St Stephens family AMOS baptised 1713)

Note:

- If the story of HUGH-WILLIAM being second cousin to the finder of the Welcome nugget is correct then HUGH at the head of this family must be one and the same as HUGH born 1759 who married Ann Skews and is head of Australian Family 6 however the dates do not seem correct - it seems more likely that HUGH of this family is HUGH born 1788 of Australian Family 6 which would make HUGH-WILLIAM nephew of WILLIAM who found the Welcome nugget.
- Various stories of the discovery of the Kohinoor diamond in Australia are probably erroneous memories of the Welcome gold nugget found by (WILLIAM 1822 Australian family 6). The Kohinoor diamond was discovered in India ! See St Erth Family 2 (AMOS 1842) and Unconnected Family 6 (formerly 24) for stories of nuggets/diamonds/gold.
- See Unconnected Family 144 for JOHN Tregenza boot and shoe manufacturer of Oxford Street Middlesex bankrupt
- Other records:
 1. ELLA mentioned in will of EDITH died 09NOV1912 Hackney.
 2. See also will in Cornish Record Office of MARY widow of HUGH 25MAY1827.
 3. HUGH born 1866 living Lambeth 1939 Register
 4. HUGH died age 89 in 1945 Camberwell.
 5. KATHLEEN-GERTRUDE death 25AUG1954 Stratton district Cornwall a widow of 5 Grenville Terrace Bude (administration 18SEP1954 Bodmin) probably not the same person as GERTRUDE-CATHERINE wife of LESLIE

UNCONNECTED FAMILY 20 (ILLOGAN)General

USA Family 1 part A was formerly the offspring of EDWARD 1753 St Erth family 1 but this connection was not safe (see notes below). It included just the four brothers EDWARD, JOHN, JAMES and THOMAS of this family and many of the offspring of JOHN and JAMES.

The other offspring of JOHN and the offspring of EDWARD were USA families 2, 3 and 4. These are now merged in the old Unconnected Family 20 (which gave the daughters also) to form a new Unconnected Family 20 as shown by the table below:

former	became	Unconnected Family 20
Unconnected Family 20 (old)		part A (Edward married Mary and all nine children)
USA Family 1 part A		part A (four brothers and some of their offspring)
USA Family 1 part B		part B
USA Family 1 part C		part C
USA Family 2 part A		part D
USA Family 2 part B		part E
USA Family 3		part F
USA Family 4		part G

See Unconnected Family 20 part A for details and stories about three of the brothers.

UNCONNECTED FAMILY 20 (ILLOGAN)

General (continued)

Unconnected Family 27 may fit in here and, if it does, it provides the offspring of the fourth brother. Assuming Unconnected Family 27 fits here the children of the four brothers was as below – this seems to indicate that the fit is good as does the match of dates, places and brother's name.

EDWARD	JOHN	JAMES	THOMAS
Edward	John	Mary-Jane	Mary
Mary	James	James	Thomas
James	Joseph		Ellen
Thomas	Edward		Edward
John	Elizabeth-Jane		Lilla
Elizabeth	Thomas		James
Dell-Gracia			Frank
			Annie

Note that the first daughter born has the father's mother's name Mary in three cases. The first son born has the father's name and subsequent sons have their father's brothers' names (from the letter of John Faull and Don Bousfield 11NOV1997).

Unconnected Family 95 (USA) was temporarily formed between 2000 and 2005 and almost immediately it was realised that it belonged to this family. No record of this unconnected family was kept.

UNCONNECTED FAMILY 20 (ILLOGAN)

Notes on the connection USA family 1 with Unconnected Family 20 rather than St Erth Family 1 as formerly

The link of the four brothers EDWARD 1810, JOHN 1812, JAMES 1819/1825 and THOMAS 1824/6 with father EDWARD 1753 and mother MARTHA of St Erth Family 1 is unsafe and the connection with the original Unconnected Family 20 is preferred. The link with St Erth Family 1 was made on the basis of the information provided in the early days of creation of this tree (see letter from John Faull 27JUL1999 below). In the succeeding decades further information was collected in particular in the 1990s by John Faull and Lyn Nash (see below). In 2010 the USA families were merged with Unconnected Family 20. A summary of the reasons for the link with Unconnected Family 20 being preferred to that with St Erth Family 1 are:

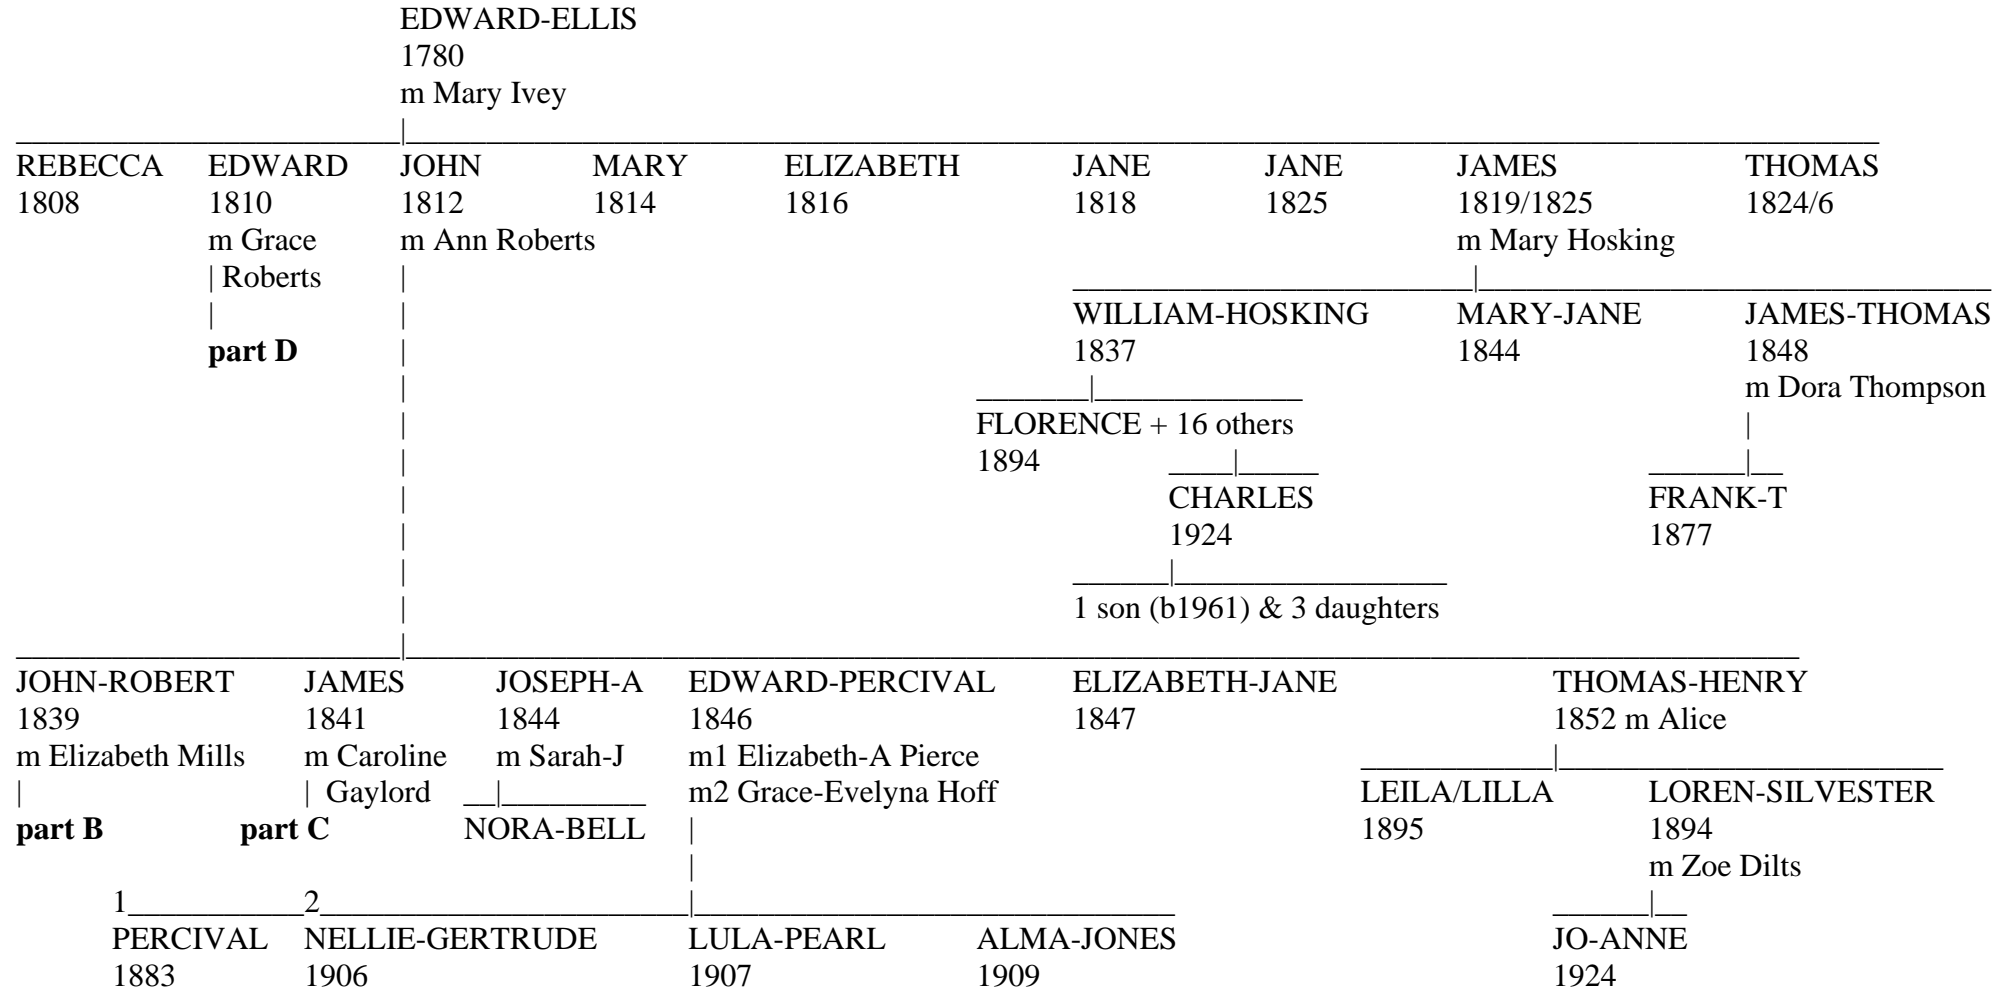

1. EDWARD and MARTHA are associated with the St Erth and Lelant area of Cornwall. However the two brothers EDWARD 1810 and JOHN 1812 gave their mother as MARY not Martha and their parish of birth as Illogan. Early records in Unconnected Family 20 are for Carn Brea / Illogan area of Cornwall.
2. EDWARD the father was born 1753 and died 1818 which means that the brothers were born to a father in his fifties (EDWARD 1810 and JOHN 1812) or after he died (JAMES and THOMAS).
3. The four brothers in Unconnected Family 20 have similar dates and their father EDWARD was born 1780 approx. married 1808 so had his children between his age 28-46 approx. and he died in his 60s between 1841 and 1851.
4. The use of -ZE, -ZER, -ZAR, -SAR, -SER and -SON endings to the surname also links up between USA families and the original Unconnected Family 20.
5. The census and other records in Unconnected Family 20 link up with the dates of the four brothers (marriages, emigration/immigration etc.) It is unlikely that there are two families at this time with four brothers with the same first names and dates.

Lyn Nash in an email gives details of EDWARD baptised 1814 that she believes is a son of EDWARD and MARTHA (see St Erth Family 1) and who is still in Cornwall at the 1881 census. This she believes prevents USA Family 1 being joined to St Erth Family 1 and means that it must join UCF 20.

A letter from John Faull 27JUL1999 indicates that the unlikely link of EDWARD 1753 to EDWARD 1810 probably came from EDWIN-TREWAVAS Tregenza married to HARRIET (Newlyn family 1) and has been traced to a letter they sent to ELBERT and RUTH Tregenza 29DEC1932 (of this family) which mentioned the tree. JOHN-ROBINSON 1944 their grandson provided a copy of it. John Faull was convinced of the link with Unconnected Family 20.

Mary Fallis (17JUL1912-01JUN2015) of Sacramento California supplied information (letter 13AUG1978) on her grandmother MARY-JANE (married James Wales) and also reports she was called/married Thomas.

An interpretation of her information could be as follows:

William Hosking		JAMES Tregenza
married MARY Thomas	later	married MARY Hosking
	becomes	(née Thomas)
William Hosking	a widow	MARY-JANE Tregenza
1837		1843

This explains the half brother/sister relationship and the source of the surname Thomas. A letter from the Redruth registrar states William Hosking born 24JUL1837 parents William and Mary Hosking, Mary formerly Thomas. On marriage certificate of JAMES Tregenza and MARY she is a widow and her father is called James Thomas. William Hosking came to USA from England via Galena Illinois USA. Mary Fallis also reports MARY-JANE Tregenza and James Wales married 1850 when she 15 and he 21 and MARY-JANE school teacher at young age and that James Wales ran a truck farm with his brother.

The pedigree of Mary Fallis back to the Tregenza tree.

JAMES Tregenza 1819
married MARY Thomas/Hosking
MARY-JANE Tregenza 1843
married James Wales
Gladys Tregenza-Wales 02JUN1884 (one of ten children)
married Harlan-Grove Wright
Mary-Lillian Wright 17JUL1912 Nevada City
married Armour-F. Fallis

Note:

- John Faull has constructed his tree (on Ancestry.com) by making THOMAS (he gives THOMAS-S) born 1824 married Hannah Chalder (sic) the son of EDWARD born 1781 married Mary Ivey born 1791 thus linking Unconnected Family 27 part A with Unconnected Family 20 part A. He also links that family upto St Erth Family 1 (via St Erth Family 8) by making EDWARD born 1781 married Mary Ivey born 1791 son of EDWARD born 1753 second marriage Eleanor Thomas born 1748.
- Note also DANIEL-W TrAgAnza born about 1818 Enfield Hartford Connecticut married Lucy Pease 02APR1837 Enfield Hartford Connecticut (www.familysearch.org) and ELIZABETH TrAgAnSa born 1849 Enfield Hartford Connecticut <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com> and <http://familysearch.org>
- EDWARD-PERCIVAL born 1846 and his children used the surname TregAnza
- JANE Tregenza married William Hoskins 13MAR1824 St Blazey (Boyd's Index) – too early for this family
- JOSEPH TregAnza married Sarah-J. Allison (born about 1854) at Hazel Green Delaware Iowa on 27OCT1885 maybe JOSPEPH 1844 of this family (Pedigree Resource File <http://familysearch.org/pal:MM9.2.1/SYG6-7X7>)

Story received verbally either from Mary Fallis (most probably or possibly from AMORITA) suggests that the brother who remained in California decided to build a bridge over a major river and charge prospectors to cross it and so make money that way rather than the riskier mining. Another verbal story indicates that Mary's ancestors took the land route across the plains and Rockies to the California mother lode country.

Story of three Tregenza brothers emigrating to the USA (from a letter from ELBERT G Tregenza)

- Elbert's grand-father went to California 1849 with two brothers, left Wisconsin and on reaching New York sailed to Panama where they crossed the isthmus by mule and on foot. They then took a boat north (to the gold strike). Grand-father returned, THOMAS went to Australia, whether EDWARD remained do not know.
- EDWARD went west in 1849; founded Tregenza architects in Salt Lake City Utah.
- ELBERT has cousins in Iowa (must be JOHN-ROBERT etc.)

Story in the family about three brothers (with their parents ?), travelling by boat to USA, then covered wagon to lead-mining area of Wisconsin (Hard Scrabble later Hazel Green). They were brought to Hazel Green by the American Mining Company. Story states that two of the brothers were married on board by the captain (Mr. Holbrook) to two sisters who they met on the boat. 'three Tregenza brothers brought to New York from Falmouth' "The Cornish in America" A L Rowse page 271

"Others of them (Cornish) re-opened old workings or opened up new ones with improved apparatus, and gave the Lead Region a new lease of life, with excellent figures of production, in the 1860's and 1870's. ... an example of this renewal of activity from Hazel Green. ...Tregenza and Son began work in the fall of 1874, at a flat sheet about five inches thick, the top lead, the lower zinc; their production 20 tons of zinc, 20,000 lb. of lead." page 199
"Though New York was only a port of entry for the vast bulk of Cornish emigrants moving inland, considerable Cornish sediment remains behind." "three Tredennick, three Tregenza, two Treloar" page 81 "The Cornish in America" A L Rowse

Some of the facts in this story (shipboard marriages and three brothers) are contradicted by records found (see letter from John Faull and Don Bousfield 11NOV1997). The quote from page 271 in A.L. Rowse's book cannot be found in any edition. The ship's passenger list of the brig 'Resolution' shows two brothers - one married before boarding and the other unmarried although his future wife was also a passenger (at 1841 census she was living in the household of her sister and husband). However there were in total four brothers (unless one was a cousin) who came to Wisconsin in the same decade. The three brothers in ELBERT-GAYLORD's letter were JAMES 1841, EDWARD 1846 and THOMAS.

This is the only 1851 census record of a THOMAS and indicates he was born in St Ewe around 1827. The THOMAS of Unconnected Family 66 baptised Bedelva St Blazey (the other side of St Austell). The place of birth of THOMAS born 1829 approx. of this family not known. This census record may relate to either THOMAS or both if they are one and the same.

Note:

- Amelia H Kilbourne-Trogenza 1877-1968 died Sheridan, buried 16 Jan website record (www.rootsweb.com/~mimontca/hillside/htm) see CHARLES-ERNEST Unconnected Family 18
- THOMAS-PHILLIPS born 1829 approx. could be the same person as THOMAS born 1827 in Unconnected Family 66 in which many of the children have PHILLIPS (their mother's surname) as their middle name – the father of both is THOMAS and works on a mine engine. The 1851 St Ewe census record of THOMAS may relate to either THOMAS and does not help to connect the THOMAS of Unconnected Family 66 to the one of this family.

Note:

- Wheal Anna Maria ('wheal' is Cornish for a deep mine) is part of Devon Consols (Consolidated mines) and was created to follow a large seam of copper ore after it jumped due to a fault. The mine is on the hill above the Tamar River and so just in Devon. From the mine it is, in a direct line, 5 kilometres east to Tavistock, 5 kilometres south to Calstock and 3 kilometres north-west to Luckett Down. From here it is another kilometre to Stoke Climsland. Launceston is a further 12 or more kilometres to the north-north-west but it is the nearest large town in Cornwall. The journey from Luckett Down to Wheal Anna Maria would take well over an hour walking but be much shorter if the river is used – Luckett Down is at the top of the west bank (Cornwall) of the Tamar and the mines the east bank (Devon). There are few bridges over the Tamar and the one furthest down stream at the time was Horsebridge just east of Stoke Climsland.
- It is assumed that THOMAS-PHILLIPS senior born 1829 approx. and THOMAS died 24SEP1858 age 30 are one and the same, noting the locations mentioned in the records and the similarity of the cause of death and occupation. The following burial record may be of him: THOMAS died Cox Park Calstock, buried 27SEP1858 Calstock.
- Formerly the tree showed two sons of Philippa née Percy both called THOMAS – THOMAS born 13JUN1856 and THOMAS-PHILLIP junior born 13JAN1860. However the latter was probably born earlier noting his age at marriage (1880), UK census 1861 and USA census 1880 and his being born long after his father's death. Note similarity of birth date and possible confusion of JAN and JUN. Note only one son called THOMAS is indicated on records but this is likely as a son born later could only take the name of his brother if he was deceased.
- WILLIAM-D. Tregenza age 67 in 2010 gives places lived as Concord, El Sobrante and Oakland all California and has a relative ALVIN-W. Tregenza (born 1907 approx.) from <http://search.mylife.com> and www.intelius.com
- on www.intelius.com NANCY-C. is a relative of D.-A., PMA and ARTHUR-E. Tregenza of this family.
- on www.intelius.com NANCY, NANCY-C. PINA and PAM Tregenza plus Alyce-W. Johnstone are relatives of DANIEL-A., PMA and ARTHUR-E. Tregenza of this family.
- NANCY-C. living Goleta California 2010 relative of DANIEL-A.
- DANIEL-A Tregenza married Nanc-C Bridge (California Marriage Index 1960-1985)
- on www.intelius.com NANCY, NANCY-B. and RAMONA-R. Tregenza plus Carol-Ann Brienza are relatives of DANIEL-A., PMA and ARTHUR-E. Tregenza of this family.

Unconnected Family 99 (MARY-ANN and her children) was constructed from:

- a. 1851 census from Arthur Childs via his cousin Mrs Alice Morrell (same information as in 2. above) (see below)

1851 census (night of 30 March) Trelissick St Erth 107/1917 folio 20, LDS film 0221071 ED 1a household 108

MARY-ANN	Trogenza	head	married	37	ag. lab.	Roach Cornwall
JOHN	Trogenza	son		10	scholar	Bristol Gloucs
SARAH	Trogenza	daughter		8	scholar	Phillack
THOMAS-HENRY	Trogenza	son		7	scholar	Phillack
ROBERT	Trogenza	son		5	scholar	Phillack
WILLIAM	Trogenza	son		3		Phillack
JAMES	Trogenza	son		2		Phillack

Roach is probably Roche Cornwall (the local pronunciation is the same).

Unconnected Family 94 (JOHN 1844, wife REBECCA and their two daughters) was constructed from:

- a. family group records from www.familysearch.org
- b. 1871 Canadian census from Sault Ste Marie Branch of Ontario Genealogical Society ISBN 0-7779-0937-5 www.ogs.on.ca - all family recorded as Wesleyan Methodists
- c. 1881 Canadian census www.collectionscanada.gc.ca

Unconnected Family 93 (THOMAS 1818, wife MARY-ANN and children SARAH, WILLIAM, THOMAS-HENRY, JANIE, SUSAN, ELLEN and AMOS) was constructed from:

- a. individual records from www.familysearch.org
- b. the marriage of SARAH and William Watson from Sault Ste Marie Branch of Ontario Genealogical Society www.ogs.on.ca documented at Sault Ste Marie Land Registry Office 1862. Witnesses Samuel Deforge and Agnes Christie of Bruce Mines plus clergyman Rev. S Down.
- c. 1901 Canadian census from Sault Ste Marie Branch of Ontario Genealogical Society Algoma Census Book 3: Bruce Mines and Vicinity 1999 ISBN 0-7779-0943-X www.ogs.on.ca AMOS head of household farmer with ELLEN sister and lodgers JAMES Tregenza born 06APR1871 labourer and WILLIAM Tregenza born 12JUL1899. All four, single, born in England and Methodist
- d. 1871 Canadian census from Sault Ste Marie Branch of Ontario Genealogical Society ISBN 0-7779-0937-5 www.ogs.on.ca All family recorded as Wesleyan Methodists. Also in the household Robert Hore labourer age 88 widower Wesleyan Methodist born England and George Lyons servant age 56 married Presbyterian born Scotland.
- e. 1881 Canadian census
- f. Members family trees (particularly the Orr Family Tree) and other records from Canadianancestry.ca
- g. <http://familysearch.org/pal:MM9.2.1/S151-X8T> submitted genealogical trees
- h. <http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com>

Note:

- the maiden name of MARY-ANN seems to have changed from 'Hoare' to variations 'Arr' and 'Hore' settling on 'Orr'
- it is probable that this family links with THOMAS born 1820 of St Erth Family 2 (note Trelyssick/Trelissick also in St Erth family 1 and similar first names - Sally is a common familiar version of Sarah). AMOS born 1800 brother of THOMAS born 1820 may have moved to Canada also and given rise to Unconnected Family 64
- SARAH born 1842 was married in Sault Sainte Marie, SUSAN born 1859 died there and THOMAS-HENRY born 1852 and offspring lived there
- Tower Hill is a road near the old walled town of Bristol and St Philip and St Jacob parish church (see THOMAS born 1819 or before)
- ELLEN married Charles Morrison as daughter born Algoma 05JUL1912 REBECCA-ELLEN (note re-use of first names) from Ancestry.ca

Note:

- this family originally only included the children JOHN, SARAH, THOMAS-HENRY, ROBERT, WILLIAM and RICHARD however a search on Ancestry.ca and this family tree was undertaken to try to link Unconnected Family 93 (CANADA) somewhere in the family tree. This resulted in finding the only THOMAS born around 1820 married to MARY-ANN on the whole family tree. This THOMAS was described in both this family and Unconnected Family 93 as an engineer - this is the only THOMAS engineer in the whole tree. He was born 1819 according to this family and 1821 according to Unconnected Family 93. However Unconnected Family 93 showed the children as SARAH, WILLIAM, THOMAS-HENRY, JANIE, SUSAN, ELLEN and AMOS which is substantially different. This is not a problem when the children are put in birth date order and their deaths are considered as it seems that the family left Cornwall in the early 1850s after deaths of half of their children. No further records of SARAH were found. The 1871 census at Bruce Mines Ontario shows that WILLIAM came to Canada with them. It is probable that their eldest son JOHN came with them but had left home before the 1871 census - looking at Unconnected Family 94 it seems that he had just married. The re-use of first names is striking in this family and both Unconnected families 93 and 94. A clinching record from Ancestry.ca is the death record of THOMAS-HENRY died age 86 in 1938 as he gives his mother's name as Mary Orr. Although the maiden name is not Hoare it of course has almost the same pronunciation and is a more respectable spelling. The 1871 census also has Robert Hore a widower age 88 who is probably the father of MARY-ANN née Hoare again confirming this link. Therefore Unconnected Families 93 and 94 were merged with this family.
- there was a discrepancy that both JOHN 18414 and WILLIAM 1848 seem to have married REBECCA née Barrett which was resolved when it was found that JOHN married REBECCA née Barnes.
- HANNAH born 02APR1880 Bruce Mines illegitimate daughter of JANE Tregenza of Bruce Mines - probably JANIE born 1857 who went on to marry in December of the same year, probably HANNAH born 1880 Bruce Mines died 25JUL1880 Algoma Ontario
- ELIZABETH-JANE born 22JAN1876 Brant near Hamilton illegitimate daughter of Mary-Jane Roberts and WILLIAM Tregenza a miner - birth registered by Eliza-Ann Roberts 24FEB1876 with registrar George Vicary - the only WILLIAM of a suitable age (born 23MAY1847) got married with surname Tregenza a long way away in Thunder Bay on the very same day the birth is registered. Note that a George Vicary is the husband of CELIA Vicary née Tregenza (of Unconnected Family 66 part D) and JANE the sister of CELIA married William Vicary (brother to George) - all living were living in Bruce Mines at this time.

Note:

- Twelve Trees not known. Twelveheads is possible as hamlet on boundary of Gwennap, St Kea and Kenwyn (detached) parishes. Twelveheads is in the Bissoe valley between Lanner, Penryn and Truro. Penryn might have been the relevant town to this hamlet. Double Trees is in Par (but this is not near Penryn).
- Birth date supplied by Mrs Eleanor-Mary Tregenza-Jones for MARY(-RODGERS) is most probably that of MARY her daughter.
- ELEANOR-MARY born 1898 and who lived most of life in London was thought to be a sister to MARY and MARIA-FRIEND Tregenza and to have married Jones – however this is explained by 1911 census which indicates that her father is named Jones and her mother was probably MARY born 1871-1875
- death record MARY-R. age 75 December quarter 1920 Cardiff district (volume 11a page 438) which gives birth as 1845 approx. which matches MARY-RODGERS though she was alive in 1911 census

Note:

- father and daughter from Mousehole Family 2 not part of this family:
JENNIFER-K-M born September quarter 1959 Bedford district
DEREK-JOHN married Barton September quarter 1958 Bedford district
- sale by Rev. Benjamin Trapp of Thurleigh clerk, John Trapp of Bedford draper and Francis Trapp of Bedford bank manager to Adam Merries of Bedford gentleman for £520 two messuages 34 and 36 Tavistock Street (later numbered 114 and 116) occupied by Adam Merries and (blank) Tregenza 10JUN1871 document Z 948/10 at Bedfordshire and Luton Archives (see www.nationalarchives.org.uk)
- Ecclesall, Sharrow and Nether Edge are very close together south-west Sheffield but Bierlow is a separate town to the north east
- Les Smith suggests this family links into Unconnected Family 4 (St Mewan) as JOHN 1784 of this family is probably the JOHN 1784 of that family (see notes on both) – both John of this family and JOSEPH of Unconnected Family 4 (St Mewan) seem to be in Corsham at the same time – others of both families in Corsham
- In 2012 further information from Les Smith, from stray records, from passengers lists or arrivals and departures from the UK and the marriage certificate PENELOPE-ANN indicated that PENELOPE-ANN her mother JEAN-SARAH-V. and father FRANCIS-BENJAMIN were not of this family and so all references to them were removed (FRANCIS-BENJAMIN married Jean Peel remained in this family). All the information was used to create Unconnected Family 142.
- The two wives of JOHN 1784 may be related as the both bore the surname Franklyn: first wife is ELEANOR Franklyn and the second Mary-Ann Patey is reported to be the second daughter of John Franklyn.

Note:

- the early part of Unconnected family 49 has similarities with this family - note several addresses in Treverbyn Road St Ives – several records are used in both families – efforts to connect them have failed and the early parts do not have sufficient records to be certain they are correct.
- no marriage record of JOHN Tregenza to Jane Couch has been found but her son Richard-Henry Couch became RICHARD-HENRY-COUCH Tregenza before the 1911 census if it is him in the above census record but he uses more of his first names with Tregenza by the start of his merchant seaman service records although on the first (1917) he puts his own first names into the form instead of his father's (from 1918 his father is entered as JOHN). JOHN the father is missing from 1911 census and JANE describes herself as a widow if this is correct and it is her as Jane Couch in the 1901 census she married JOHN and he died between these dates – no records have been found to support this.

Catherine	Baragwanath	grndau	single	13	scholar	St Ives Cornwall

- the early part of Unconnected family 48 has similarities with this family - note several addresses in Treverbyn Road St Ives – several records are used in both families – efforts to connect them have failed and the early parts do not have sufficient records to be certain they are correct.
- no birth records of JOHN 1892 and RICHARD 1898 under surname Trogenza or Couch have been found though Richard-Henry Couch born 1898 (illegitimate son of Jane Couch born Illogan workhouse – see Unconnected Family 48) probably became RICHARD Trogenza however the only birth for a John Couch has different parents (14FEB1891 Tuckingmill Redruth district March quarter 1891 volume 5c page 230 father Charles and mother Mary Couch née Mitchell - see certificate)

Note:

- This family possibly comes from EDWIN 1847 of St Erth Family 4 (compare with age at death of EDWARD of this family born 1851 approx). EDWIN is recorded as having died in Middlesbrough and his brother THOMAS-THISTLETON of St Erth Family 4 is reported to have visited relations in Middlesbrough. Note the similar use of first names in the two families. All the EDWINs born in the correct period are in other families so no record of the birth in St Erth Family 4.
- This family possibly fits into Unconnected Family 79 where there is also an EDWARD born 1850
- Emma James marriage records are found for the period around the birth of the children but none with groom's surname Tregenza or similar. She did not indicate the father's name or occupation when the twins were born even though she used Tregenza as their surname and hers so perhaps she only married EDWARD prior to the birth of WILLIAM-JOHN.
- No 1871 census found.
- No GEORGE birth for relevant period found.
- other records
 - WILLIAM-JOHN born June quarter 1876 Guisboro'
 - WILLIAM-THOMAS died 1876 age 0 Guisboro'
 - MARY-JANE died 1877 Barrow F district age 2
 - MARY-JANE born December quarter 1879 Barrow F. district (8c 754)

1. Unconnected Family 1 (Plymouth region) tentatively (see notes below) was added here (see below)
2. marriage certificate of WILLIAM to Elizabeth Brokenshire at St Blazey
3. 1911 census from www.1901censusonline.com
4. WILLIAM-GORDON 1892 'Royal Navy register of seaman's services' (see document ADM 188/884) from www.nationalarchives.gov.uk

8. 1921 UK census from www.findmypast.co.uk
9. 1939 Register

Unconnected Family 1 (originally WILLIAM-GORDON 1923 plus father, wife and daughter then extended) was constructed from:

- a. the marriage certificates of WILLIAM-GORDON to Hylda Lacey and to MAY-FLORENCE
- b. the birth certificate of WILLIAM-GORDON 1923 and his marriage certificate to DORIS
- c. the death certificate of WILLIAM-PHILLIPS 1912
- d. general registry records
- e. information from Mrs Tregenza née Nickells who believed that the family originated in the Falmouth area and that there are still relations there.
- f. the birth and marriage certificates of ELSIE-FLORENCE-LYNNETTA 1897 and RONALD-TREVOR 1900
- g. the birth certificate of DOROTHY-PEARL 1895 and her marriage 1917
- h. records from wills and administrations

Notes on connection of Unconnected Family 1. It was tentatively joined in here because of the match of dates, places and occupations plus the lack of other matches on the Family Tree. However there is some doubt about the certificate that might confirm the link:

1. The marriage certificate 1891 of WILLIAM bachelor age 64 to Elizabeth Brokenshire age 54. This gives his occupation as hawker (same as death certificate of WILLIAM-PHILLIPS 1912) but the dates are 10 years out – perhaps he was 54 not 64. Residence at time of marriage as St Blazey and his father THOMAS engineman are correct. The marriage certificate unfortunately does not give his name as WILLIAM-PHILLIPS. The 1891 census for St Cleer gives Elizabeth Brokenshire as age 55 born St Blazey - the census is date about 6 weeks before the marriage.
2. No birth certificates can be found for WILLIAM-GORDON 1893 which would provide their mother's first name to confirm the link. However dates of birth (from census and marriage certificate) match to date of marriage of WILLIAM to Elizabeth Brokenshire. Did she give birth to children when she was age 56 and 58 ?
3. Birth certificates for DOROTHY 1895, ELSIE-FLORENCE-LYNNETTA 1897 and RONALD-TREVOR 1900 give father as WILLIAM a hawker but mother as ANNIE-BEATRICE formerly Handcock/Hancock not Brokenshire however their marriage certificates give father as WILLIAM-PHILLIP deceased tin miner in cases of RONALD-TREVOR, DOROTHY-PEARL and WILLIAM-PHILLIPS but deceased fitter in case of ELSIE-FLORENCE-LYNNETTA
4. It is possible that the core Unconnected Family 1 (WILLIAM-GORDON 1923 plus father, wife and daughter) does not fit here but that the others (mother ANNIE) do (as in 1911 census).

OTHER INFORMATION ON UNCONNECTED FAMILY 66 (ST BLAZEY/USA) part D (continued)

Note:

- Many members of the Unconnected Family 31 are living in Bruce Mines at the same time as JANE and CELIA/ELLAN of this family but the families originate in different parts of Cornwall – JANE and CELIA/ELLAN married Vicary/Vicory brothers from Bruce Mines
- WALTER-VICTORY/VICORY of this family may take his name from Walter Vicary husband of JANE
- Sydney Vicory born 1887 approx. Bruce Mines Ontario (mother a Tregenza ?) married Clara Rodehouse born 1880 approx. York Ontario
- Mother and children JOHN-HENRY to ROBERT-LEWIS able to read and write according to the census
- Jefferree's letter gives some members of this family GEORGE, ROBERT (still alive 1963), NORMAN and FREDERICK all living in Orillia plus LESLEY of North Bay Sudbury District Ontario worked in police force (probably LESLIE-ALVIN or JOHN-LESLIE) and also gives SARAH of 299a Harvey Street Orillia and Mrs N. Tregenza Orillia
- Obituary of JOHN-LESLIE II and DORIS-EVELYNE have conflicting information some of which is possibly solved by the children of LINDA second wife of JOHN-LESLIE I being by an earlier marriage and so not grandchildren of DORIS
- the birth date of NORMAN seems to vary between the 1901 and 1911 census - maybe the first died and the second took his name
- JANE 1843 and CELIA 1845 have some connection with Sault Sainte Marie and a little later there are members of Unconnected Family 31 part A (SARAH and SUSAN) and part C (offspring of THOMAS-HENRY) in that area
- in 1953 voters list NORMAN retired and Mrs VIOLET living at 96 West Street Simcoe East and FRED retired next door at 97
- in 1965 voters list Mrs SARAH TregAnza Simcoe Ontario
- Reginald-Charles Morrison born 18JUN1906 gives father's name as Charles Morrison and mother's name as ELLEN Tregenza - area is Manitoulin about half-way between Bruce Mines / Sault Sainte Marie and Simcoe
- JOHN of North Bay on facebook 2010

OTHER INFORMATION ON UNCONNECTED FAMILY 66 (ST BLAZEY/USA) part E

Constructed from information from:

1. Unconnected Family 25 (CANADA) was added here (see below)
2. 1921 census from Canadian www.ancestry.ca (see below)
3. voters lists from www.ancestry.ca
4. other records from Canadian www.ancestry.ca
5. Public member trees from www.ancestry.ca (especially Rigby family)
6. Telephone directories www.ancestry.ca

Unconnected Family 25 (WILLIAM, wife EDITH née Boyd and children CLIFFORD, MELVILLE, HILTON, HAROLD-ALEXANDER, ARNOLD and LILA plus CARL son of CLIFFORD and offspring of HAROLD-ALEXANDER) was constructed from:

- a. the Jefferee's letters
- b. an email from Lorraine Carter.
- c. an email from SHIRLEY wife of ROY Tregenza
- d. searchable online site with photographs of headstones etc. canadianheadstones.com

Note:

- living members of the family have said that the children of WILLIAM and EDITH were all born on the farm in Moonstone, Ontario Canada and their parents died there and also that the family stayed on the farm during World War II (except Melville)
- there is a slight doubt about merging Unconnected Family 25 with Unconnected Family 66 as UCF25 gave parents as WILLIAM born 1886 and wife Edith Boyd with children CLIFFORD, MELVILLE, HILTON, HAROLD-ALEXANDER, ARNOLD AND LILA. The link was made by using member family trees from Ancestry.ca members family trees (McLean, Turner and Wood/Thomson/Lang/Kincade) from Ancestry.ca that give the only children as EVA-EDYTH, CLIFFORD-BOYD, WILBERT-D. (died in a year) and an unnamed child who died a week after birth - they did however give the parents as WILLIAM-HERBERT born 1879 and EDITH-DEVINA née Boyd. It seems unlikely that there are two women named Edith Boyd (though a common surname) married to WILLIAM Tregenza with a son named CLIFFORD as this time in the same parts of Ontario. The middle names of these three persons would have confirmed the link. The 1921 census gives the family as in Unconnected Family 25 but with the age of WILLIAM as 40 so born in 1880/1881 closer to the 1879 date shown in members family tree. It seems that an explanation for the differences is that UCF25 as supplied by living members of the family and the 1921 census only include those children that survived childhood - it is known that two died but no death record has been found for EVA-EDYTH though neither has she appeared on voters lists, in telephone directories or in any other record on Ancestry.ca unlike the other children.
- HILTON-J. and HAROLD-ALEXANDER were born the same year - twins ? though at the census two years after HAROLD's birth his age is given as 1/12 = 1 month so he may have been born 1921 not 1919
- mentioned in the McLean Family Tree (Ancestry.ca) was an unnamed child born 03FEB1917 Medonte Simcoe and died 10FEB1917 but WILBERT-DALTON was also born 1917 in December ! dying in January 1918 (death record from Ancestry.ca)
- several CARL Tregenzas on voters lists: in 1965 employed in maintenance living with wife at 180 Lindsay Street Simcoe East, in 1968 Civil Servant of 143 Yonge Street Simcoe North Ontario and in 1874 plumber Waubaushene Simcoe North with wife PENNY also C Tregenza living on Pine in Waubaushene in telephone directory 1995-2002, J. Tregenza and C. Tregenza living at 212 Pine Waubaushene L0K2C0 in 1996-2000 (www.ancestr.com)

Note:

- The other TREGENZA families in the Truro/Kenwyn area are Unconnected Families 14, 15, 16, 17, 31, 33, 79 & 81 plus St Erth Family 3.
- The family story is that John Harwood from Yorkshire is the biological father of the three children and that he died prior to the family going to the USA. On their arrival they all took the surname Harwood. Elizabeth and the children were in the USA by 1860 when Elizabeth Harwood (=Elizabeth Tregenza) died in 1860 Shelby County (Memphis) Tennessee. The fate of the three children is as follows:
 - William-Hugh Harwood married Hattie Meade in 1874 and there were three children: Arthur, Maude and William-Fay 1875-1954 (grandfather to Elizabeth Dubberley)
 - Mary Harwood married H-C-F Flischke 10JUN1872, both died in yellow fever epidemic Memphis Tennessee 1878
 - John Harwood appears in 1865 census Memphis and 1867-1869 Memphis City Directory, may be John Harwood of Tennessee injured in the civil war (two records).

OTHER INFORMATION ON UNCONNECTED FAMILY 148

Constructed from information from:

1. email from Trevor-Carl cre8it1@rogers.com

Note

- TREVOR-CARL believes that his family is part of UCF25 (now joined to UCF66) and that UCF108 fits into it - if so some problems e.g.: WILLIAM 1886 married Edith or Doris ? or on UCF25 CLIFFORD and CARL 1939 must be CLIFFORD-CARL I & II of this family - does not match with UCF108 ! He feels UCF108 is 'muddled up'. Requests for more details have not been met. NORMAN of UCF66 part born 1969 confirms that UCF148 is part of UCF66 part E after conversing with TREVOR 02MAR2018 but again no supporting dates or other details (see email).

OTHER INFORMATION ON UNCONNECTED FAMILY 151 (continued)

Note

- There are problems with this family
 - the will of ROBERT-CHARLES is ‘to beneficiary and wife Sophie-Helen Tregenza (Maynard)’ as Sophie-Helen it seems is not his wife but his daughter (look at dates) – this probably means that it goes to a beneficiary and the deceased’s wife with the beneficiary being Sophie-Helen
 - Sophie-Helen née Johnson married Robert-William Maynard and they lived in or near the shop - there is no Tregenza or Johnson birth record found for her – she may have been an adoptee or step-daughter (from a previous marriage for example)
 - Sophie-Helen’s father (on her marriage certificate) is the grocer Robert-Charles Johnson- did he change his name to Tregenza at some time – no Tregenza birth or marriage records have been found for ROBERT-CHARLES
 - No marriage records was found for ROBERT-CHARLES and FLORENCE-FRANCES either with Tregenza or Johnson with any combination of first names. Many births for Frances Johnson but none in Weymouth; many births for FLORENCE-FRANCIS; no births at all for relevant period with Tregenza surname.
